

Dr. Jacquita Wright-Henderson, Registered Parliamentarian

In 2020, Dr. Jacquita Wright-Henderson's thirst for knowledge propelled her to study independently and successfully complete the necessary exams to become a Registered Parliamentarian®.

Even before she earned this credential, she was actively involved in parliamentary affairs through mentoring others, facilitating parliamentary workshops, and leading parliamentary study sessions.

Dr. Wright-Henderson, RP currently serves as the President of the Delaware State Association of Parliamentarians and President of the Parliamentarians of Kent County Delaware, the second unit of the National Association of Parliamentarians® (NAP) chartered in the State of Delaware. Dr. Jacquita also serves as the President of the First Episcopal District AME Women in Ministry along with being a member of eNAP, AIP, EAP, and a Life Member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.® (AKA) where she serves on the North Atlantic Region's Constitution Committee.

Dr. Jacquita previously served as Parliamentarian for the Interdenominational Church Ushers Association of DE; Board President of Diamond State Pearls, Inc.; Board Chairman of Neighborhood House, Inc., Wilmington, DE; along with being appointed as the parliamentarian for the Sigma Zeta Omega Chapter of AKA under two separate administrations. Professionally, Dr. Jacquita is a retired college administrator, who pastors at Mt. Zion AME Church in Darby, PA and serves as a Licensed Funeral Director at The House of Wright Mortuary, Inc. She and her husband, Keith are blessed to have five adult children and four grandchildren.
