

Greetings family and friends of the Late Apostle Joseph L. Brown.

I want to first express my thankfulness for all of the love and support that everyone rendered in their own way during a time when we all needed it most. As I embark on a new journey with leading the North American Outreach (NAO) Fellowship International, I want to build on the foundation that my father set by continuing his legacy to educate, empower, and equip current and new individuals and ministries in successfully fulfilling their Kingdom mandate.

As we reorganize and plan for Convocation 2023, I'm reaching out to express my need for your support. I want to see my father's vision of growth for the NAO to come to pass. I am sure that if anyone had an encounter with my father, that you've experienced his heart in wanting to see you live right, succeed in God, and have an abundant life. I want to continue that expression of my father's heart. My father has poured into the lives of many, and I believe that it's time for us all to come together and share in a common bond which is the ministry of Apostle Joseph L. Brown.

How can you show your support and come together? Consider joining the North American Outreach (NAO) Fellowship International by becoming a supporter or member. The mission/vision of the NAO is to expand the Kingdom of God through territories and regions across the United States and globally by engaging and providing fellowship, training, and equipping for leaders and the nations.

I am calling forth the legacy members of Apostle Brown. Those persons who sat under his pastoral leadership and apostolic covering via his years of pastoral service at University Ministries International and his years of bishop administration with the NAO. Mark your calendar and plan to attend Convocation 2023 in Lakeland, FL, June 22-24, 2023.

To become a legacy supporter, we are asking for a $75 monthly commitment for the next 4 months (or a one-time commitment of $250) to help us with the growth of the NAO and to cover some expenses of Convocation 2023.

I look forward to connecting and reconnecting with you soon.

Grace and Peace,

Bishop Joseph "Joel" Wesley Brown II
Presiding Prelate of North American Outreach Fellowship International
