Hand Stitched Thread on Hand Dyed Rust Pigmented Textile

Commissioned by Quetico Provincial Park Permanent Art Collection

Budget: $4,950

Created following a two-week artist residency at Quetico Provincial Park, Ontario, Canada August 18 to September 2, 2013. The piece is made from three pieces of hand dyed fabrics that also has rust pigmentation added. It is densely hand stitched in three distinct patterns. The textile artwork is representative of both sunrises and sunsets experienced in the interior of Quetico Provincial Park.
