This piece was commissioned by a car collector. The Ford emblem is used with licensing permission from Ford Motor Company. The collector wanted to be able to display the quilt on the package tray of his station wagon as well as in his race trailer.

He provided photos of both of his Gran Torino cars to be used as templates for the stitching on either side of the Ford logo. He also provided a photo of the emblem from the grill of one of his car so a template could be made for stitching as well. The Ford emblem is hand appliquéd and then densely echo quilted to make the Ford name pop out of the quilt.
