Book Quilt 2025 was commissioned by a client for their eldest son who was turning 18 and starting his second year of college. The son has been a voracious reader of mythology, magic, and graphic stories his entire life, so the book theme was a pertinent starting point. Each fabric selected for the book covers and framing had significance in his life so far, from technology, music, and graphic art to sports he participated in, to his interest in stars, the universe, and his ethnic background. It will be installed in his first apartment before classes start for the Fall 2025 semester.
