This piece was commissioned by a couple in Belgium and is made to fit their bed although it is now displayed on their wall in their dining room. Antique quilt blocks from 1890 through 1938 were constructed to make this sampler quilt based on their request. The quilt is machine pieced, hand quilted and hand bound. Quilting designs found in the quilt include garden gates, flying birds, baby foot prints, watering cans, tea cups, houses, puzzle pieces, film strips, frogs, leaves, roses, turtles, books, daisy chains, diamonds, stars, and a seashell.
