This quilt was a commission piece made in 1997. The offset green center of the quilt features a hand quilted replica of the owner's shoulder tattoo which is a fighting leprechaun. The center block was offset so that when the top of the quilt was put over the pillows, the leprechaun would be in the center of the bed. In the green blocks, there is a shamrock hand stitched. In the navy-blue blocks, there is a flower hand quilted, and in the yellow blocks interconnecting circles represent the gold coins from the pot of gold. In the yellow border, there is a diamond shaped chain hand quilted to encircle the quilt.
