

Diamond #1: Layered Formation (31" x 39"/ 79 x 99cm)
c) 2009-2011 Jean M. Judd/Artists Rights Society (ARS) New York
Hand Stitched Thread on Textile
Available for Purchase - $4,500

This is the first piece in a new series based on the diamond form. Blue and pink diamonds are the most highly valued diamonds in the diamond market. This piece reflects the diamonds themselves as well as the ghost forms of the diamonds yet to be formed in the coal represented by the black areas. This artwork is heavily hand stitched to add visual as well as physical texture. It can be exhibited in several different orientations which makes it a very versatile piece.

--The South Arkansas Arts Center in El Dorado, Arkansas has selected textile artist Jean M. Judd of Cushing, Wisconsin for inclusion in the 2014 SAAC Juried Art Exhibition. Artwork selected for inclusion in the exhibit includes Diamond #1: Layered Formations.

This is annual national juried exhibition of 2D and 3D fine arts media including video, photography and computer-generated work. Exhibit juror, Dayton Castleman, Museum Manager for 21c Museum in Bentonville, Arkansas has selected 39 artworks by 31 artists for the exhibition. Mr. Castleman said: "I'm not so much concerned with whether art is easily digestible to the viewer, but with whether it demonstrates an illusiveness and maturity that creates intrigue and requires deep reading and engagement."

The exhibition opens on July 2, 2014 and is open through July 31, 2014. The artist reception and awards presentation by the juror is on July 2, 2014, at 6pm. The address of the arts center is:
