Book Quilt 2023 was commissioned by a client for their eldest daughter who was turning 18 and starting her second year of college. She has been a voracious reader her entire life, so the book theme was a pertinent starting point. Each fabric selected for the book covers and framing had significance in her life, from favorite seasons of the year, to sports she participated in, to her faith and ethnic background. It was installed in her room the day before classes started for the Fall semester.
