This artwork was designed around specific information provided by the client. This quilt is for a couple who had been married and expecting their first child. The couple's names and birth dates are hand stitched in the top two hearts. The family dog's name and birth date are in the bottom heart on the right-hand side. The wall hanging was returned to me twice to add in new arrivals to the family. The "W" was hand appliquéd to the background fabric. The background fabric behind the initial has an oriental motif as the wife was born in Japan. The oriental fabric has been heavily echo quilted by hand. The farmer, mushroom and penguin fabrics are all specialty fabrics from France.
