This center of this art quilt was made from 110 different commercial fabrics. It is framed with multiple borders so that the center would be the highlight of the quilt. Each resulting pinwheel was hand quilted to accent the pinwheel design. The white border has hand stitched cross hatching, and the blue border has its own unique hand quilted design. The tan border has harps in the right and left borders, and the top and bottom borders have the artist's version of heaven's pearly gates hand stitched. The final border is a cherub border, and each cherub is echo quilted to make the cherub stand out. This quilt is now gracing a guest bedroom in the owner's home where the owner's angel collection is on display.
