THIS SEASON

This story happens every day.

They were doing everything right. Steve and Anna, parents of three young kids, worked hard to pay their rent and keep food on the table. Yet it wasn't enough and it became impossible with their rising cost of living – even with Steve's new job.

This is when the magic started. KidVantage helped turn things around for this family by supplying diapers which allowed them to save and afford the basics for their household—and it didn't stop there. We also sent warm clothes and boots so that the kids could go to school warm and dry – and play outside!

Families and kids are struggling in this economy, we bear witness to it every day with a 40% increase in our services from this time last year.

Be the magic kids need this season!

What does this mean? We can make sure the bundles we send to children are full of essential care, food, safety, and health goods. With your support, kids will receive all of what they order because we came together in this moment to make sure they have what they need to be successful in school and life. Now that is true magic!
