

Supplemental Materials:

 A World without Rules: Writing Project

Describe what it would be like to live in a world without rules. Choose one of the following as your focus:

- Roads and driving without rules
- Life at home without rules
- If small children made up all the rules
- Society without rules

 Portraits of the Long-Legged Boy and the Curly-Haired Girl: Art Project

Use art materials to create portraits of the main characters in chapter 2.

 Words of Wisdom: Poetry Project

Write your own words of wisdom that you would offer to young people as they are leaving home to start their lives as adults. Write it in poetic form, but rhyme is not necessary.

 Consequences: Skit Project

Write and perform a skit to teach about how our actions have equal and opposite reactions. Some potential topics might include:

- Being mean to others and its consequences
- Being kind to others and its consequences
- Being helpful to others and its consequences
- Being stingy toward others and its consequences
- Gossip and its consequences
