 Words Remembered: Memorization Project

The long-legged boy and curly-haired girl tucked away some words of encouragement given to them early on by people who cared about them. Those words took on meaning later. Here are some words of encouragement for you from someone who cares about you. Tuck them away by memorizing them. They are from the prophet Jeremiah in the Bible (Jeremiah 29:11–13):

“For I know the plans I have for you,” says the LORD, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, to give you a future and a hope. Then you will call on Me and go and pray to Me, and I will hear you. And you will seek Me and find Me when you search for Me with all your heart.”

 Your Testimony: Writing Project

Chapter 16 ends with the statement that you have a testimony and that your testimony is part of Jesus’s victory story. What is your testimony? How has Jesus touched you? How has knowing Him changed you? Where were you before and where have you come to since knowing Him? How might your story be a help to others?

 To Your Authors: Letter Project

Now that you know the identity of the long-legged boy and curly-haired girl, as a group, write to your two authors about the journey this book has taken you on. They would love to hear from you! Your letter can be sent via email to: info@victoriouswarrior.org.
