July 19th, 2024 6:30 PM

Pam Beard

Crayon Quilts

Southern Fiber Artist Exhibit

Waller Craft Museum

Tue-Sat through

September 21st

Hello Quilters –

We had a great array of holiday projects shared at our July meeting. Thanks to everyone who brought items to share. Hopefully this program sparked some gift and holiday décor ideas to all of us.

Our July retreat was enjoyed by all. Anytime shared with other quilters and friends is always a special time. Walking around the room and seeing the wide variety of projects everyone was working on is always a treat and inspiring. I managed to get an UFO quilted. I was so excited.

Pamela Beard will present her Crayon quilt and tips on how she created it at our August 19th meeting.

Schools are back in session and Autumn is around the corner, along with football and other fun activities and hopefully relief from the heat. We are in need of volunteers for our 2025 slate of officers. Please let me know if you would be interested in serving.

Continue to stay inside as much as possible, enjoying your quilting and crafts.

Happy Quilting,

Patricia

President Patricia Welsch called our meeting to order. There were no visitors. She reminded us of the upcoming retreat on Friday and Saturday July 26th & 27th.

Linda Jabour made a motion to accept the minutes as published in the revised newsletter. Pam Beard seconded the motion.

Treasurer Karen Petrignani reported we have a balance of $2,619.48 in our account. The bank is now charging $2.00 a month for paper statements.

Polly Duggan let us know that the Rolling Fork nursing home is looking for small or lap size quilts so their residents will have something when they return to Rolling Fork. They expect to be recertified by the 1st of September. They do have 15 residents in wheel chairs.

Christy Calhoun reminded us Wynndale Quilters meet the 2nd Thursday of the month. In August and September they will meet for 2 days — August 8th & 9th and September 12th & 13th.

Jackie Watkins reported the Southern Fiber Artist Quilts have 110 quilts hanging in the Waller Craft Center through September 21st. Walt Grayson did a feature on the show airing tonight. The segment can be viewed on the WJTV website

Linda Jabour reported MQA will be sending out a survey soon. In August they will be playing BINGO and the Fall Gathering is the 1st weekend in November in Batesville.

Pam Avara reported that the Gulf States Quilt Association still has not posted the requirements for becoming an affiliated guild and what the benefits are. They are looking for a guild Liaison. Beth Sonnier volunteered to be our Liaison.

The program was on Holiday Projects. Patricia Welsch, Karen Petrignani, Amy Schwalm, Polly Duggan, Pam Avara, Ruby Lowe, Linda Jabour, Shelly Taylor, Pam Beard, Sarah Ketchum and Christy Calhoun all brought in holiday projects to show.
