Quilters -

Thank you to everyone that brought items to sell at our annual auction. A special thanks to all that purchased items, too. Karen reported we made a total $332. The plants I purchased have flourished and really added to the color of my backyard and the fresh basil has been fantastic.

The MQA June Gathering was attended by quite a few of our guild members. I hope everyone had as good of a time as I did. It was fun to go around and visit the other classes Friday night. They all appeared to be interesting classes and the students were making lovely items and learning new techniques.

Karin Brown will be presenting the wedding ring quilt for our June program. Karin tried several techniques and finally found one she likes and will share this with us.

Our summer retreat will be July 25th and 26th. Hope everyone can attend. If you can't stay, you can still stop by and see what everyone is working on.

Happy quilting,

Patricia

QUILTERS BY HEARTS DESIRE

May 12, 2025 Minutes

A personal note from Pam Avara — as I sat down to put the newsletter together I realized I could not find my notebook. As soon as I do, I'll update the minutes. Found the notebook!

Patricia Welsch called the meeting to order. There were no visitors.

Cindy Pannier made a motion to accept the minutes and Christy Calhoun seconded the motion... The minutes were approved. I have no notes on a Treasurer's report. Karen provided a treasurer's report. MQA is June 6th & 7th. It's too late to sign up for a meal, but you may be able to get into classes. Beth Sonnier said they still need 2 irons and ironing boards outside of the classrooms. There will be help unloading at Eagle Ridge.

Next month Karin Brown will be talking about Double Wedding Ring quilts.

GSQA Pursuit of Excellence is May 24th. If you are interested check the website to fill out the registration form.

Wynndale Quilters will meet on Thursday, June 12th & Clinton Quilters will meet on Saturday, June 14th. Rankin County Sit & Sew is June 6th.

Pam Avara won the door prize of this month's Quiltfolk magazine.

Before the auction started, there were a quick show-n-tell. Lucy Large showed a QOV quilt— Lucius Layers. Polly Duggan showed her Pizza Box quilt and was able to identify who did each block prior to the meeting. Marilyn Rose showed a miniature One Block Wonder. Pam Avara showed a lone star quilt she had been working on for over 19 years. Sarah Gayden showed us a necklace, earring and pin she made using the Dorset Button technique taught last month.

Patricia Welsch was auctioneer. Fabric, books, notions and plants were auctioned off. If there were no bidders the decision was made to donate it to the MQA Free table.

The meeting was adjourned.
