

Read Fort Worth Parent Consent to Share School Data with AB Christian Learning Center

The Read Fort Worth Summer Scholars Collaborative is an opportunity for programs serving Fort Worth ISD students to align best practices and share data to ensure students gain or maintain literacy levels over the summer. It is a critical piece of the 100×25 initiative and collaborative work of Read Fort Worth and its partners.

To provide better services for students in Fort Worth Independent School District, Read Fort Worth would like to share some of the information with staff from AB Christian Learning Cent. By providing AB Christian Learning Center staff with access to school data, these staff will be better able to support to your student.

We would like your written consent to allow staff from AB Christian Learning Center working with your child to obtain information about your child from Fort Worth ISD. All information will be treated as confidential and will only be used for purposes related to enhancing the delivery of services. The Read Fort Worth and AB Christian Learning Center will use the information described below to enhance their programming and interaction with your child. This data will be shared for Summer 2021 and the 2020-2021 school year.
