

Hello! My name is Casey Arias and I am bilingual. My Costa Rican immigrant parents taught me Spanish, and I learned English in school. It was a difficult journey, but it's an experience I now treasure. My goal is to help students learn English in a loving, supportive environment. I am eager to help students meet their goals and embark on this new and exciting educational adventure!