

Jubilee Artwork Winners Ceremony – June 22

In October last year, we held an Arts & Crafts Exhibition for the first time at St Margaret's Church. And we were absolutely blown away by the talent of local people in our area. So much so, that when we planned our Jubilee celebrations this year, we decided to run a competition in honour of her Majesty the Queens 70 year reign.

The standard was very high and our judges were impressed. So well done to everyone who took part and contributed to our competition.

There were 3 categories (Primary School, Secondary School and Adult), and prizes for each was presented by Rev. Stephen Gwilt.

The Winners were:

Primary Category – Jake Dockwray for 'The Queens Coronation Crown'

Comments from the judges on Jake's artwork were:

Innovative in design, love the use of buttons and different media, great colour & texture. A fantastic effort!

Secondary School Category - Rebecca Moaby for 'Platinum Queen'

Comments from the judges were:

Attention to detail is outstanding, use of dark to light shows good understanding of the media used. clearly talented! Drawing skills and observation is excellent,

'I hope that the artist continues with their art as they have great potential'.

Adult Category - Helen Sharpe for 'The Many Faces of Her Majesty'

Comments from the judges were:

Original in design and imagination, colourful, storytelling, expresses the queens 70 year journey perfectly.

These winning pieces of art will be on display again at our annual local Art Exhibition held at St Margaret's Church in October 22.

And Rebecca Moaby's piece will be sent to Buckingham Palace to our Queen as a Jubilee Gift, following on from our Art Exhibition in October.....more news to follow.....
