

TRIXTER

"Trixter" hailing from the City of Firsts" in the Midwest's world class city Chicago. Trixter is a pioneering originator in the development of Chicago Graffiti Trends and Style, and the growing national and International Street and Urban Arts movement.

Recognized across international barriers, and awards from practicing professionals, patrons, and practitioners of growing and dynamic world of graffiti, and the modern arts mainstream.

Currently "Trixter" is nearing completion on a new work of authorship, due to be available for review, and pre-order in late 2021, and developing a formal preservation organization for the art, craft, and science of graffiti, and the emerging science of "Grafology".

His interests are focused in creating an empowering and accessible venue for practicing and emerging artists interested in being a part of a unique project establishing a movement and an organization for the advancement of the GRAFOLOGICAL SCIENCES.