The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) is a process by which adults can learn more about our faith.

OCIA takes place in stages, with each stage expressing a further development or deepening of one's faith. During the first stage the potential converts are presented with an overview of Catholicism and its teachings and practices. The next stages consists of further instruction, which includes breaking open the Word for discussion, learning and growth.

The sessions run from Fall thru Spring, with full initiation occurring at the Easter Vigil. Sessions after Easter provide further instruction as well as insight for the ongoing journey.
