

January 22, 2024
6:00pm
Lowell City Hall

Attendees: Heather Seay, Jessica Holbrook, Tori Dellinger, Bill Knox, Candy Funderburk, Anne Massey, Jarel Mackey

Heather called the meeting to order and determination of quorum occurred at 6:00pm. Minutes from the November and December meetings were reviewed. A motion to approve the minutes was made by Bill and seconded by Anne.

Unfinished Business

No Unfinished Business this meeting.

New Business

Heather welcomed Candance Funderburk to the committee.

Façade Grant info was shared and questions answered. Tori stated that the second application period was open and will remain open until February 28th. Physical letters were sent to property and business owners to get the word out, but no applications have been received yet. Candy mentioned that the owners of the Kava Shop have expressed interest and suggested Tori reach out.

Staff Updates

Joe shared with Tori that there is no new news from the Planning Department to share.

Tori shared the next event will be the Senior Valentines Luncheon on Thursday, February 8th at Presbyterian Church of Lowell with dine in and to go options. Most are signed up for dine in. Candy suggested thinking about entertainment at such events and Tori shared she has been looking at different games and activities for the event. Jarel brought up providing transportation to events for those that can't drive. Tori will have to look into liability for this, but the Parks and Recreation assistant does have a CDL. Status of the Community Center and Rec Center were shared. Anne suggested changing the time of the Memorial Day service back to Noon. Holbrook Middle School's involvement in the service was discussed as well as the possibility of partnering with a local church.

Member Updates

Candy asked if anyone had heard anything about the building where Mya Rita's was. There are parties interested in opening businesses there.

Bill made a motion to adjourn and it was seconded by Candy. Meeting adjourned.

The next LCC meeting will be on February 26th at City Hall.