Pedestrians and Motorists

With nice weather comes more people walking and biking in and around the Village. Pedestrians, stay safe at crosswalks by following these tips:

- Always cross at marked crosswalks.
- Make eye contact with motorists.
- Obey pedestrian signals and look left-right-left.
- Make sure all lanes are clear before crossing.
- Walk against traffic, not with it.

Motorists, keep pedestrians safe by following the tips:

- Share the road with pedestrians.
- Be on the lookout for bicyclists.
- Give school buses 20 feet of room.
- Practice safe habits at crosswalks.

Be a Compost Crusader

Did you know, over 25% of the waste stream could be composted? Curby's Compost Service is a curbside compost pickup service.

When you sign up, you will receive a container and a compostable bag to use throughout the week. During the week, add compostable items to the container (click here for a full list of what you can/can't compost) and then simply bring your container to the curb for pickup!

Curby's will replace your filled container with a clean container and a new compostable bag. Pickup is between 7am and 5pm. You will be notified of your collection day when you receive your bucket. Members are billed on a monthly basis.

Members also receive a credit good toward one 25-pound container of Dirty Dirt's Artisan Blend Organic Soil every 6 months.

Contact Curby's Compost at (414) 445-4345.
