GREATER CLEVELAND FOOD BANK PROGRAMS

KIDS CAFE provides free meals after school to children through a variety of partners including libraries, schools and community centers.

SUMMER FEEDING provides free nutritious meals to children during summer break at neighborhood locations such as libraries, schools and community centers.

MOBILE PANTRY provides free direct community delivery of fresh fruits and vegetables to a central location.

SCHOOL MARKET provides free ready access to fresh produce to children and their families at school. Check with your school principal for location information.

BACKPACK FOR KIDS provides children with bags of nutritious food that are sent home with each child on Fridays to sustain them through the weekend.

EMERGENCY FEEDING PROGRAMS:

PANTRIES provide three-day supplies of food to families to take home through our partner agencies.

HOT MEALS provide prepared food on-site for individuals and families to enjoy through our partner agencies.

To locate a program, please call 216-535-2096 or visit GreaterClevelandFoodBank.org.

OUR SENIOR SERVICES

SENIOR BOXES provide seniors with nutritious USDA foods like rice, juice, cereal and fresh produce to enhance their diet.

SENIOR MEALS PROGRAM provides nutritious and nourishing meals to help seniors who are living in their own homes. Prepared meals are delivered to community centers or picked up by partners for delivery to homes of housebound seniors.

SENIOR MARKETS provide healthy, nutritious foods to low income seniors residing in larger apartment and housing complexes. Cooking demonstrations, nutrition tips and benefits outreach also help to provide additional resources to seniors through this model.
