10.2.6 CITY PLANNER

CLASSIFICATION: Exempt (salaried), at-will, full-time position.

DEPARTMENT: Planning/Building

POSITION SUMMARY

This position is responsive to a highly involved and educated community that holds the City organization to a high standard of service and accountability. Design review and permitting of renovation projects large and small (requiring administrative approval or action by the Planning Commission) consume a significant amount of the City Planner's time.

This senior management position reports directly to the City Manager and is responsible for implementing all aspects of the City General Plan, Zoning, Architectural Review and Subdivision Ordinances, and implementing the state and federal planning and affordable housing laws, rules and regulations.

With limited support staff, the City Planner meets with applicants, makes site visits, reviews plans and specifications, evaluates neighborhood and community impacts, writes comprehensive staff reports, and presents well reasoned recommendations to the Planning Commission. Depending on the size and type of project, design review approvals are handled at either the administrative level or by the seven-member Planning Commission which holds hearings on a monthly basis.

The City of Belvedere is 99.9% residential and completely built out.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Manages, supervises, coordinates, researches and analyzes planning, zoning, and affordable housing programs.
- Reviews multiple projects daily. These can range from a simple home improvement project to the demolition of a small, older home and its replacement by a new executive residence designed by a world-class architect.
- Develops, reviews, updates, and implements the General Plan, the zoning ordinance, design review ordinance, subdivision ordinance, historic preservation ordinance, other planning documents, and other City Council policies.
- Assists property owners, architects, builders, and attorneys with processing applications and meeting planning requirements, responding through written correspondence, with phone, or in person at scheduled appointments or on a walk-in basis
- Reviews building permit plan submittals for conformance with the approved design.
- Prepares and administers the department budget.
- Prepares and presents reports, statistical analyses, proposals and special projects at meetings of the Planning Commission, City Council, Historic Preservation Committee, and special committees and provides professional assistance on a variety of City matters to these bodies.
- Coordinates with other City departments and works on planning related issues with local, State, and Federal agencies.
- Performs related duties and responsibilities as required.

KNOWLEDGE AND ABILITIES

Knowledge of:

- Comprehensive knowledge of modern principles, practices, techniques and laws related to

- urban planning, housing and community development.
- Working knowledge of California planning, zoning and development laws, the California Environmental Quality Act and the State Subdivision Map Act.
- General knowledge of architecture and landscaping, building codes, budgeting procedures, principles and practices of supervision, and principles and techniques of providing effective customer service.
- Strong design sense and an understanding of the unique residential character of Belvedere.
- Experience with General Plan and Zoning Code amendments, CEQA interpretation and application, affordable housing requirements and reporting, land use and regulatory issues effecting waterfront communities and constraints imposed on properties located within FEMA designated Flood Zones.

Ability to:

- Organize, direct, and implement a current and advanced planning and zoning program in compliance with Federal, State, and local rules, laws, and regulations.
- Perform zoning, environmental, and architectural design review by comparing project characteristics to defined limits, policies and thresholds.
- Effectively communicate technical, architectural and design, and procedural information and concepts to persons of varying backgrounds, both verbally and in writing.
- Make lucid and concise but complete oral reports at public meetings and to field questions from commission members and the public.
- Apply policies and regulations consistently and fairly.
- Establish procedures for the communications and enforcement of City policies and regulations.
- Formulate decisions on a continual basis, using good judgment, regarding such things as the appropriate level of project review, how to mitigate potential environmental or social impacts, and how to distribute department resources to manage a heavy workflow and meet multiple deadlines.
- Provide excellent customer service while helping to reverse any public misconceptions regarding the planning process or the goal of public officials and staff to serve the best interests of the entire community.
- Use word processing, spreadsheet, and email software to prepare a variety of written materials.

Physical ability to:

- Sit and stand for prolonged periods and to work at a computer keyboard with a mouse for an average of 4 hours per day.
- Write, reach, twist, turn, and stoop in performance of daily office activities.
- Use near and far vision in reading, reviewing plans, using the computer monitor, and looking at property.
- Use hearing and speaking in communicating with individuals and groups and working on the phone.
- Lift, drag, and push files, paper, plans, and documents weighing up to 20 pounds.
- Visit properties and make site reviews in all weather conditions including wet, hot, and cold.
- Work irregular or extended hours to attend various committee meetings.
- Work with constant interruptions, and at times, with clients who may be upset when discussing and enforcing City codes.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Any combination of experience and education that would likely provide the required knowledge and abilities to perform the essential duties and responsibilities is qualifying, such as:

- A bachelor's degree in urban planning, environmental science, architecture, public administration, geography or a related field. A master's degree in planning is desirable.
- Six years of progressively responsible planning experience in a local government setting. Supervisory experience is highly desirable.
- AICP certification preferred.
- Valid California Class C driver's license and satisfactory driving record.
