HOUSING

Survivor Housing: Commercial Mobile Home Parks

Survivor families are finding temporary housing at 19 commercial parks throughout Northern California, where FEMA is currently leasing a total of 358 pads. As of September 5th, 223 survivor households are housed in these commercial parks.

Housing Success:

With all four FEMA temporary housing communities completed in Butte County, survivor households are quickly moving in and all survivors have moved out of the transitional sheltering program (TSA). The TSA program has ended and there are no households currently waiting for housing.

TOWN OF PARADISE

Over 100 building permit applications are in “plan check” with the Town of Paradise, and 186 permits have been issued. Expectations are optimistic that 500 permits will be issued by the end of the year.

Total enrollment for Paradise Unified School District (PUSD) is 1742 students (51% of pre-fire enrollment). Disaster experts predicted only 33% enrollment this year, so to have over 50% is a huge accomplishment and a testament to the commitment of staff and the community.

CRISIS COUNSELING / DISASTER DISTRESS HELPLINE

Survivors who may be stressed, anxious, or depressed following the wildfires can receive free disaster crisis counseling. Survivors who wish to speak to a counselor may call the disaster distress hotline at 800-985-5990 or text TalkWithUs to 66746. Counseling does not require registering with FEMA. For more information, visit www.SAMHSA.gov/find-help/disaster-distress-helpline.

Through outreach and education, California HOPE empowers and restores stability to fire survivors and fire-affected communities of Butte County. HOPE Counselors meet with fire survivors and their families on the survivor’s schedule, wherever they’re most comfortable. HOPE counselors facilitate educational and support group meetings for survivors and provide support at community events. Call 530-966-7382 or email calhopebutte@gmail.com to connect with a HOPE Counselor today.
