STARTING A BUSINESS IN COLMA

TOWN OF COLMA

CALIFORNIA

IT'S GREAT TO BE ALIVE AND DOING BUSINESS IN COLMA

WHY COLMA

The Town of Colma, known world-wide as the "City of Souls," is a unique, diverse community of 1,600 residents located on the San Francisco peninsula. It is a regional destination known for its cemeteries, shopping centers and auto sales district. In spite of its urban setting between the cities of Daly City and South San Francisco, the Town maintains a "small town" feeling for its residents and many visitors.

Colma's commercial buildings make a distinct architectural statement resulting from design standards that encourage Spanish-Mediterranean motifs. Colma boasts an old-world charm all its own, from its brick-paved residential streets and ornamental street lamps to its historical museum and restored railroad depot located at its Historical Park and Community Center on Hillside Boulevard.

Within its two-square mile boundary, the Town enjoys a strong tax base, one of Northern California's most complete collections of car dealerships, two shopping centers and a cardroom. There are two BART stations nearby. Colma is also easily accessed via Highway 280.

The Town has a modern city infrastructure with a professional staff who are easily accessible to residents and local businesses. A monthly newsletter is distributed from Town Hall with timely information about the City Council agenda, upcoming community events and special interest articles.

This small-town approach to modern, municipal government reflects a commitment to both a thriving business climate and a harmonious relationship with residents.
