Employee Spotlight...

Andrea Ortega, Senior Recreation Leader
Colma Employee: 2 years

Why did you want to work with the Town of Colma?
 I wanted to work for the Town of Colma’s recreation department because for a long time I wanted to be a teacher. I thought working with Colma would allow me to develop some of those skills that I would need later in my career when it comes to working with children.

What is your favorite part about working here?
 I work almost exclusively with the children of Colma, so my favorite part of working here has been watching as the kids grow, develop their interests, and become kind members of the community. I enjoy being someone that the kids can look up to and I feel proud to play a positive role in their lives. In the 2 years I’ve been here I’ve seen kids grow taller, lose their baby teeth, and even become Leaders In Training. It’s super rewarding to see.

When you’re not at work, what are some things you like to do?
 When I’m not at work I love to bake and cook.

What are your plans for the future?
 Though I used to plan on being a teacher, my mentality has changed a bit. I first want to graduate college with a degree in Sociology and hopefully a second degree in Ethnic Studies. I’m not sure what I’ll do with my education yet, but I want to be able to be in a position where I can help underrepresented youth and struggling communities succeed.

What is your best tip for health and wellness?
 My best tip for health and wellness is to find healthy foods that are tasty! I love to cook and it’s amazing how much boring green beans can change by adding some seasonings and tossing them into the oven. There are dozens of ways to incorporate healthy foods into your diet without missing out on delicious flavors.

Fun Fact: Because I go to college out of town, I only work at the Town of Colma during certain times of year. You can find me in Colma in the summer, during my winter break, and for some weekend events throughout the year.
