I, _____, of _____, understand and agree that the Danvers Fire Department and the Town of Danvers are providing a free service, by providing a temporary loan of a key box (Supra Box) as a public service. I understand that the Danvers Fire Department and the Town of Danvers do not guarantee this key lock box. I also understand that the Danvers Fire Department and the Town of Danvers are not sellers, manufacturers or dealers in key lock boxes and that this loaner lock box is being offered as a free service to aid the Danvers Fire Department and other Town of Danvers public safety entities the ability in gaining access in the event of an emergency or calls for assistance.

In exchange for accepting this free service, I agree not to make any claim or demand or file any lawsuits against the Danvers Fire Department or the Town of Danvers or any individual connected with the Danvers Fire department or the Town of Danvers for injuries, damage, or expenses claimed to have resulted from the key lock box loaner program and to indemnify and hold the Danvers Fire Department, the Town of Danvers, its employees or agents harmless from any and all claims, demands, or lawsuits filed against the Danvers Fire Department or the Town of Danvers as a result of the use of this key lock box.

I further understand that for this key lock box to be effective, its needs to be maintained correctly. I also understand that installation and maintenance of this key lock box is solely my responsibility. Assistance with installation will be provided if needed. However, I agree not to make any claim or demand or file any lawsuits against the Danvers Fire Department or the Town of Danvers or any individual connected with the Danvers Fire department or the Town of Danvers for injuries, damage, or expenses resulting from said assistance.

I further understand that the key lock box remains property of the Danvers Fire Department and the Town of Danvers, and upon cessation of use of the key lock box by the above named individuals(s) it shall be returned to the Danvers Fire Department, 64 High Street, Danvers, MA 01923.

This release from liability is binding on me, my family and all my heirs, successors and assigns.

By my signature on this release, I acknowledge that I have read the release in its entirety, or that it has been read to me. I further acknowledge that I understand the provisions of this release and that I agree to be bound by them.
