

Counselor in Training Application

About the program

Danvers Recreation's Counselor in Training (CIT) program is designed for youth entering grades 9 through 12. Participants will be immersed into our summer programs and given leadership opportunities while gaining hands on experience within a Danvers Rec program setting.

The CIT program is offered for all of the core Danvers Recreation programs that run for the duration of the summer program. The length of the CIT program depends upon the program, and ranges from a minimum of two week to ten weeks. Participants will receive direct supervision from Danvers Recreation staff.
