If you have an alarm system in the City of Desert Hot Springs, it must be registered. A one-time registration fee of $27 is required for residential and non-residential alarm permits and no fee for annual renewals. If police personnel respond to an unregistered alarm, the owner may be fined. The first (1) false alarm will be issued as a warning within a twelve-month period, beginning on the date the permit is issued. Users will be fined $140 for the second and $240 thereafter, within a twelve-month permit period.
