

SAMPLE WEBSITE CONTENT

On Aug. 15, 2024, [organization name] will be participating in City Hall Selfie Day!

City Hall Selfie Day is a celebration of public service showcasing pride in local government institutions. Every year since 2016, government employees, elected officials, members of the media, and community members participate in the event.

City Hall Selfie Day is organized by ELGL (Engaging Local Government Leaders), a professional association for people who work in and with local government.

How can I participate?

Simply take a selfie, either alone or with a group, in front of a city hall, town hall, county building, library, or any other local government building you want to showcase. Then, post the selfie on social media using the hashtag #CityHallSelfie to join the celebration!

How can I get the word out?

Share information about the celebration with your friends, colleagues, and community members!

ELGL awards recognition and prizes to the people and organizations showing the most pride and creativity on the big day.

Visit cityhallselfie.com to learn more and see photos from past City Hall Selfie Day celebrations.

What is ELGL?

City Hall Selfie Day is organized by ELGL, Engaging Local Government Leaders. ELGL is a professional association with members who work for and with local governments throughout the United States.

ELGL is focused on all levels of local government, from analysts to mayors, librarians to planners, and everyone in between. ELGL's mission is to engage the brightest minds in local government by providing education and networking opportunities to public servants.

