

Fairfax Update

News from around Town...

February 2019

Parkade Project

The Parkade Improvement Project has begun, and beginning February 20th the lot will be closed for 7-8 weeks. We apologize for the inconvenience, and will post information on alternative parking locations for downtown customers, merchants, and employees as it becomes available. The project entails the full reconstruction of the parking lot, including ADA improvements.

Volunteers Honored

Two long time Fairfax volunteers were recently honored at our January and February Town Council meetings. Monty Stephens has stepped down from the Parks and Recreation Commission, where he spent 10 years helping make Peri Park the magical place it is, as well as promoting many PARC events like the Egg Hunt and Halloween Grove.

Holly Bragman, who served on the Volunteer Board for 15 years, helped keep the heart of Fairfax thriving. She was instrumental in organizing the first Chipper Day, the Fairfax Food Pantry, the Town-wide Picnic, the EcoFest, and the annual Community Passover Seder, to name just a few of her many contributions. We are so fortunate to have had these Fairfax heroes on our boards and commissions and we thank them for their many years of service.

New Artist In Residence Appointed

We are excited to welcome our newly appointed artist, Susan Pascal Beran (sculptor), to join our collaborative with Stephanie Mohan (photographer) and Georgia Gibbs (painter) and town staff. Susan Pascal Beran is an established and well known exhibited public art sculptor and artist.
