

About Pine Hill Section

Samuel Maurice Buck (1873-1937) purchased seven acres of land on this site in 1914, with the goal of creating a Boy Scout camp. He was the assistant superintendant of the Taylor-Wharton Iron and Steel Company, and served as the first Scoutmaster of High Bridge. After his death, the land was named "Camp Buck" in his honor. In 1946, the land was utilized by troops from as far away as Trenton. In the early 1950s, many scouts volunteered to build a wooden cabin that could accommodate eight individuals. This cabin was removed around 1960. After numerous council mergers, the County acquired the camp and other parcels of land in 1975. Today, 41 acres have been set aside as open space, and the name "Pine Hill" is derived from the road that borders the property. On the other side of the river is Camp Carr, part of the YMCA.

Today, the South Branch Reservation totals over 1000 acres. Besides providing recreational opportunities, the reservation helps preserve the South Branch of the Raritan River Watershed from development and provides wildlife habitat.
