

GOSHEN PUBLIC LIBRARY

Summer 2021 News

*“The only thing you absolutely have to know, is the location of the library.”—
Albert Einstein*

The Library is Open!

We have resumed our usual hours: Tuesdays and Wednesdays 3-6 p.m. and Saturdays 11-3 p.m. Curbside pickup is still available. Masks are optional for fully vaccinated patrons and required for non-vaccinated patrons. Social distancing guidelines should be observed in the library. For more information on the reopening of town facilities, please see the Goshen town website.

New Items in the Library

Even though the library has been closed to the public, we have continued to acquire many new materials. Here are just a few for you to consider:

Books of history/politics/biography:

The Outlier: the Unfinished Presidency of Jimmy Carter by Kai Bird

Persist by Elizabeth Warren

Lady Bird Johnson: Hiding in Plain Sight by Julia Sweig

A Promised Land by Barack Obama

The Room Where It Happened by John Bolton

Books for children and teens:

The Stick Man by Julia Donaldson

At Home in the Barn by Margaret Wise Brown

The Lunch Lady (series) by Jarrett J. Krosoczka

Popular fiction titles:

The Night Watchman by Louise Erdrich

All the Devils are Here by Louise Penny

Plus DVDs, museum passes for individuals and families, and more!

Summer Reading Program for Families

Families will want to check in with the Library Director, Martha Noblick, about plans for summer reading and programming. With an eye toward local history, families can read The Boy Captive of Old Deerfield and do several other things linked to this true tale of the past.

Library Hours:

Tuesdays & Wednesdays 3-6 p.m.
Saturdays 11-3 p.m.
