A Community Housing Development Organization (CHDO) is a private nonprofit organization that:

1. Is organized under State or local laws;
2. Has no part of its net earnings inuring to the benefit of any member, founder, contributor, or individual;
3. Is neither controlled by, nor under the direction of, individuals or entities seeking to derive profit or gain from the organization. A community housing development organization may be sponsored or created by a for-profit entity, but:
 - i. The for-profit entity may not be an entity whose primary purpose is the development or management of housing, such as a builder, developer, or real estate management firm.
 - ii. The for-profit entity may not have the right to appoint more than one-third of the membership of the organization's governing body. Board members appointed by the for-profit entity may not appoint the remaining two-thirds of the board members; and
 - iii. The Community Housing Development Organization must be free to contract for goods and services from vendors of its own choosing;
4. Has a tax exemption ruling from the Internal Revenue Service under section 501(c)(3) or (4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986;
5. Does not include a public body (including the participating jurisdiction). An organization that is State or locally chartered may qualify as a Community Housing Development Organization; however, the State or local government shall not have the right to appoint more than one-third of the membership of the organization's governing body and no more than one-third of the board members may be public officials or employees of the participating jurisdiction or State recipient. Board members appointed by the State or local government may not appoint the remaining two-thirds of the board members;
6. Has standards of financial accountability that conform to 24 CFR 84.21, "Standards for Financial Management Systems;"
7. Has among its purposes the provision of decent housing that is affordable to low-income and moderate-income persons, as evidenced in its charter, articles of incorporation, resolutions or by-laws;
8. Maintains accountability to low-income community residents by:
 - i. Maintaining at least one-third of its governing board's membership for residents of low-income neighborhoods, other low-income community residents, or elected representative of low-income neighborhood organizations. For urban areas, "community" may be a neighborhood or neighborhoods, city, county or metropolitan area; for rural areas, it may be a neighborhood or neighborhoods, town, village, county, or multi-county area (but not the entire State); and
 - ii. Providing a formal process for low-income program beneficiaries to advise the organization in its decisions regarding the design, siting, development, and management of affordable housing;
9. Has a demonstrated capacity for carrying out activities assisted with HOME funds. An organization may satisfy this requirement by hiring experienced key staff members who have successfully completed similar projects, or a consultant with the same type of experience and a plan to train appropriate key staff members of the organization; and
10. Has a history of serving the community within which housing to be assisted with HOME funds is to be located. In general, an organization must be able to show one year of serving the community before HOME funds are reserved for the organization. However, a newly created organization formed by local churches, service organizations or neighborhood organizations may meet this requirement by demonstrating that its parent organization has at least a year of serving the community.

Board Information Description

At least one-third of the organization's board must be representatives of the low-income community the CHDO serves. To meet the one third (1/3) minimum requirement, the organization's board could consist of either:

- Residents that live in the low-income community where 51% or more of the residents are low-income. The persons need not be low income;
 - Residents of the community who are qualified as low-income (below 80% of the median income); or
 - Elected representatives of low-income neighborhood organizations.
1. Low-income resident of the community - Under the HOME program, for urban areas, the term "community" is defined as one or several neighborhoods, a city, county, or metropolitan area. For rural areas, "community" is defined as one or several neighborhoods. Also income must be below 80% MFI for their family size.
 2. Resident of a low income neighborhood in service area - This does not mean that you must be a low-income person, only that you reside in a low-income neighborhood within the organization's Consortium service area.
 3. Elected rep or a low income neighborhood organization – A low-income neighborhood organization is an organization composed primarily of residents of a low-income neighborhood. Examples are block groups, civic associations, neighborhood church groups.
 4. No more than one-third (1/3) of the board shall be made up of elected or appointed public officials or public employees of the government entity or entities which the CHDO serves. See definitions below:
 - a). Elected or Appointed Public Official – A public sector representative in any elected public official, any appointed public official, any public/government employee of a public agency or department, or any individual who is appointed by a public official to serve on a CHDO board.
 - b). Public Employee - All employees of public agencies, including schools, Housing Authorities and Redevelopment Authorities.

NOTE

1. Low income persons residing outside the Holyoke-Chicopee-Westfield Consortium's service area cannot be counted as low income board members for Holyoke-Chicopee-Westfield Consortium CHDO designation purposes.
2. If a board member is both an elected/appointed public official/public employee and a low income person/resident/representative, that person MUST be counted toward the one-third of board members allowed for public officials/employees and will not be counted as a low income board member.
