2. Presentation to Development and Government Relations Committee Public Hearing on Proposed Amendment to Urban Renewal Plan - continuation from September 3rd meeting: Marcos Marrero said that since the September 3rd hearing staff prepared more information showing the status of properties proposed to be included in the urban renewal plan. He said this included vacancy status and current uses at properties. Mr. Marrero added that the HRA Board also met to discuss the information from the previous public hearing and that there are no changes to the proposal. The DGR committee then proceeded with the Public Hearing and decided to continue the hearing to November 2nd. (The DGR 10/5/2020 Public Hearing can be viewed at <https://holyokemedia.org/programming/government-programming-archive/>).
3. Adjournment: With no other business, a motion was made at 7:50 p.m. by John Whelihan and seconded By Thomas Creed to adjourn the meeting. All members present approved.

Respectfully Submitted,

John Whelihan, Chairperson
Holyoke Redevelopment Authority
