

Guidance for Reception Hall and Conference Centers

STATUS: Open with Restrictions

Reception Halls and Conference Centers are allowed to open under the limitations in Governor Reeves' Executive Order 1492 summarized below

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR RECEPTION HALLS AND CONFERENCE CENTERS

- Continue following the Guidance for All Employers.
- Employees must wear face coverings (when tolerated medically and physically) when social distancing of six-feet between individuals cannot be consistently maintained.
- All commercial entities and establishments that provide services to the public must require customers and visitors to wear face coverings (when tolerated medically and physically) when entering and exiting the facility and when walking around in the facility when social distancing can't be maintained. Customers may remove face covering while seated at tables.
- All commercial entities and establishments that provide services to the public must require customers and visitors to wear face coverings (when tolerated medically and physically) when in an area or performing an activity where social distancing can't be maintained. Customers may remove face covering while seated at tables.
- All commercial entities and establishments that provide services to the public must post face covering requirements in an obvious location to provide notice to employees and visitors.
- The number of guests in the reception hall or conference center shall be no greater than 25% of maximum seating capacity.
- For seated dinners only, reception halls and conference centers shall limit the number of guests to no greater than 50% of maximum seating capacity.
- Tables shall be arranged to ensure a minimum of 6 feet of separation between tables. Seating at each table shall be limited to a maximum of 6 guests.
- Food services are subject to the limitations placed on in house dining.