I	Dear City of Jackson, My name is Carolyn and I am producing the true crime series "Death in the Dorms" for the HULU streaming platform. This series profiles cases in which a college student and their potential was taken far too early, and we interview those involved, including law enforcement, friends and family. I am working on the LaTasha Norman murder (November 2007) and the perp is Stanley Cole. I would like to request police investigative records - including reports, crime scene photos, interrogations, etc - for court case #09-0-559. LaTasha, a Jackson State University student, was last seen November 13, 2007 and her body was found

23-1042	I'm an Associated Press news reporter investigating the Feb. 20, 2019 death of Mario Clark, who died after an altercation with Jackson police officers. This is to request all records related to the incident involving Clark and his subsequent death, including incident reports and supplements of the officers involved, witness statements, death investigation records and internal affairs reports. This is also to request any body cam and/or dash cam video of the incident. I believe much or all of this information has already been released to other requesters. Note: I have tried on several occasions to request information through the police department as well as the city's civil service commission, and received no response. Given this history, I ask that you expedite my request. I would I ke this information in an electronic format and sent by email or through an electronic file sharing program. Please let me know in advance if this is likely to cost more than $50 to fulfill. Do not hesitate to contact me with any questions or concerns by email or phone.	06/14/2023 09:26:05 AM	Police Department	Ryan J. Foley
