WORK ENVIRONMENT

The work environment characteristics described here as the Environmental Factors and the Physical and Non-physical Demands are representative of those an employee encounters while performing the essential functions of this job. Duties require exposure to serious physical dangers and extremes in weather and temperature. Officer sits in a vehicle for long periods of time; stands for long periods directing traffic; gets in and out of a vehicle repeatedly; stoops, bends, squats, twists upper portion of body, and runs in pursuit of fleeing suspects. Officer may be required to physically overcome suspects. The Police Officer must maintain the appropriate level of physical fitness required for hire as a condition of continued employment. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

The noise level in the work environment is usually moderately quiet. Very loud noises are to be expected on occasion if employee is in the field.

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

Employees of the Jarrell Police department work in shifts. In accordance with the exception allowable under Section 7 (k) of the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA), the Jarrell Police Department has established a 14 day work period for its police officers.

SELECTION GUIDELINES

Formal application; rating of education and experience; oral interview and reference check; job related tests may be required. Job offer will be conditioned upon satisfactory results from a criminal background check, a physical examination, and drug and alcohol testing. Non-commissioned candidates will be required to undergo a psychological evaluation as well.

The duties listed above are intended only as illustrations of the various types of work that may be performed. The omission of specific statements of duties does not exclude them from the position if the work is similar, related or a logical assignment to the position.

The job description does not constitute an employment agreement between the employer and employee and is subject to change by the employer as the needs of the employer and requirements of the job change.
