Purpose. This document contains the various City policies, procedures, and employee benefits governing your employment and the conduct of City business. It is not intended to cover or address every situation that may be encountered during employment. The City Council of the City of Johnson City reserves the right to modify, revoke, suspend, terminate, or change any or all such benefits, plans, policies, or procedures, in whole or in part, at any time, with or without notice.

SOPs. This document includes Department Standard Operating Procedures (“SOPs”) in the Appendices. The Personnel Manual shall control over any other policies unless Department SOPs are more restrictive.

Noncontractual. This document is not a contract. The language used in this document is not intended to create, nor is it to be construed, to constitute a contract between the City and any one or all of its employees. This document does not provide contractual or property rights to any employee nor constitute a guarantee of employment for any specific duration.

At-Will Employment. The relationship between the City and its employees is “employment at will,” irrespective of the classification of the position. “At-will” means that the employment relationship can be terminated by either employer or employee at any time for any or no reason, in so much as the termination is not illegal. Nothing in this Personnel Manual shall be held to alter the “at-will” nature of such employment. The City of Johnson City reserves the right to release an employee at any time or for any reason, with or without cause, unless expressly prohibited by law.

Document Review. A Councilmember or Mayor may access an employee’s personnel file, excluding medical file, in his official capacity. These files can be reviewed at the city offices at City Hall but must not leave that location.

CHAPTER 1 SCOPE OF PERSONNEL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Section 1.1 Supersede Previous Policy; Conflicts

The City of Johnson City Personnel Policies and Procedures Manual, the “Manual”, sets forth the personnel policies and procedures governing all City employees. These policies and procedures supersede previous administrative rules, regulations, and policies adopted before the date of this revised document. If any conflict or inconsistency arises with these policies and procedures, State or Federal law governs respectively, unless such documents specifically state that it is subordinate to these policies and procedures.

Section 1.2 Application; Exemptions

These personnel policies apply equally to all employees of the City and all job applicants unless a class of employees is specifically exempted by these policies. Persons appointed to serve on City Boards, Committees or advisors are exempt from these policies. A person on retainer or under a specific contract with the City is not considered to be a City employee unless a specified employment agreement is stipulated.

CHAPTER 2 ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

Section 2.1 City Council and Mayor

The City Council and Mayor (together City Council) are the policy-making authority of the City of Johnson City. The City Council has the authority to set policy on pay rates, working conditions, and employee benefits as they find to be in the public interest. The City Council shall review these Policies no less than once every two (2) years.

Section 2.2 Chief Administrative Officer

The Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) assists the City Council in the administration of personnel policies and procedures and is also responsible for the day-to-day administration of these Personnel Policies and Procedures for municipal employees. The CAO shall be selected by the City Council and shall work under the direction of and be responsive to the City Council.

Section 2.3 Department Heads

Department Heads are responsible for the day-to-day administration of these Personnel Policies and Procedures for their respective departments and work under the supervision of the CAO. A Department Head may make departmental rules and regulations that govern the conduct and performance of employees; however, such rules and regulations must be consistent with the Manual. Unless a Department SOP is more restrictive, the Manual shall control over any other policies. Disciplinary action, as outlined in Chapter 18, may be based upon violations of any such rule and/or regulation.

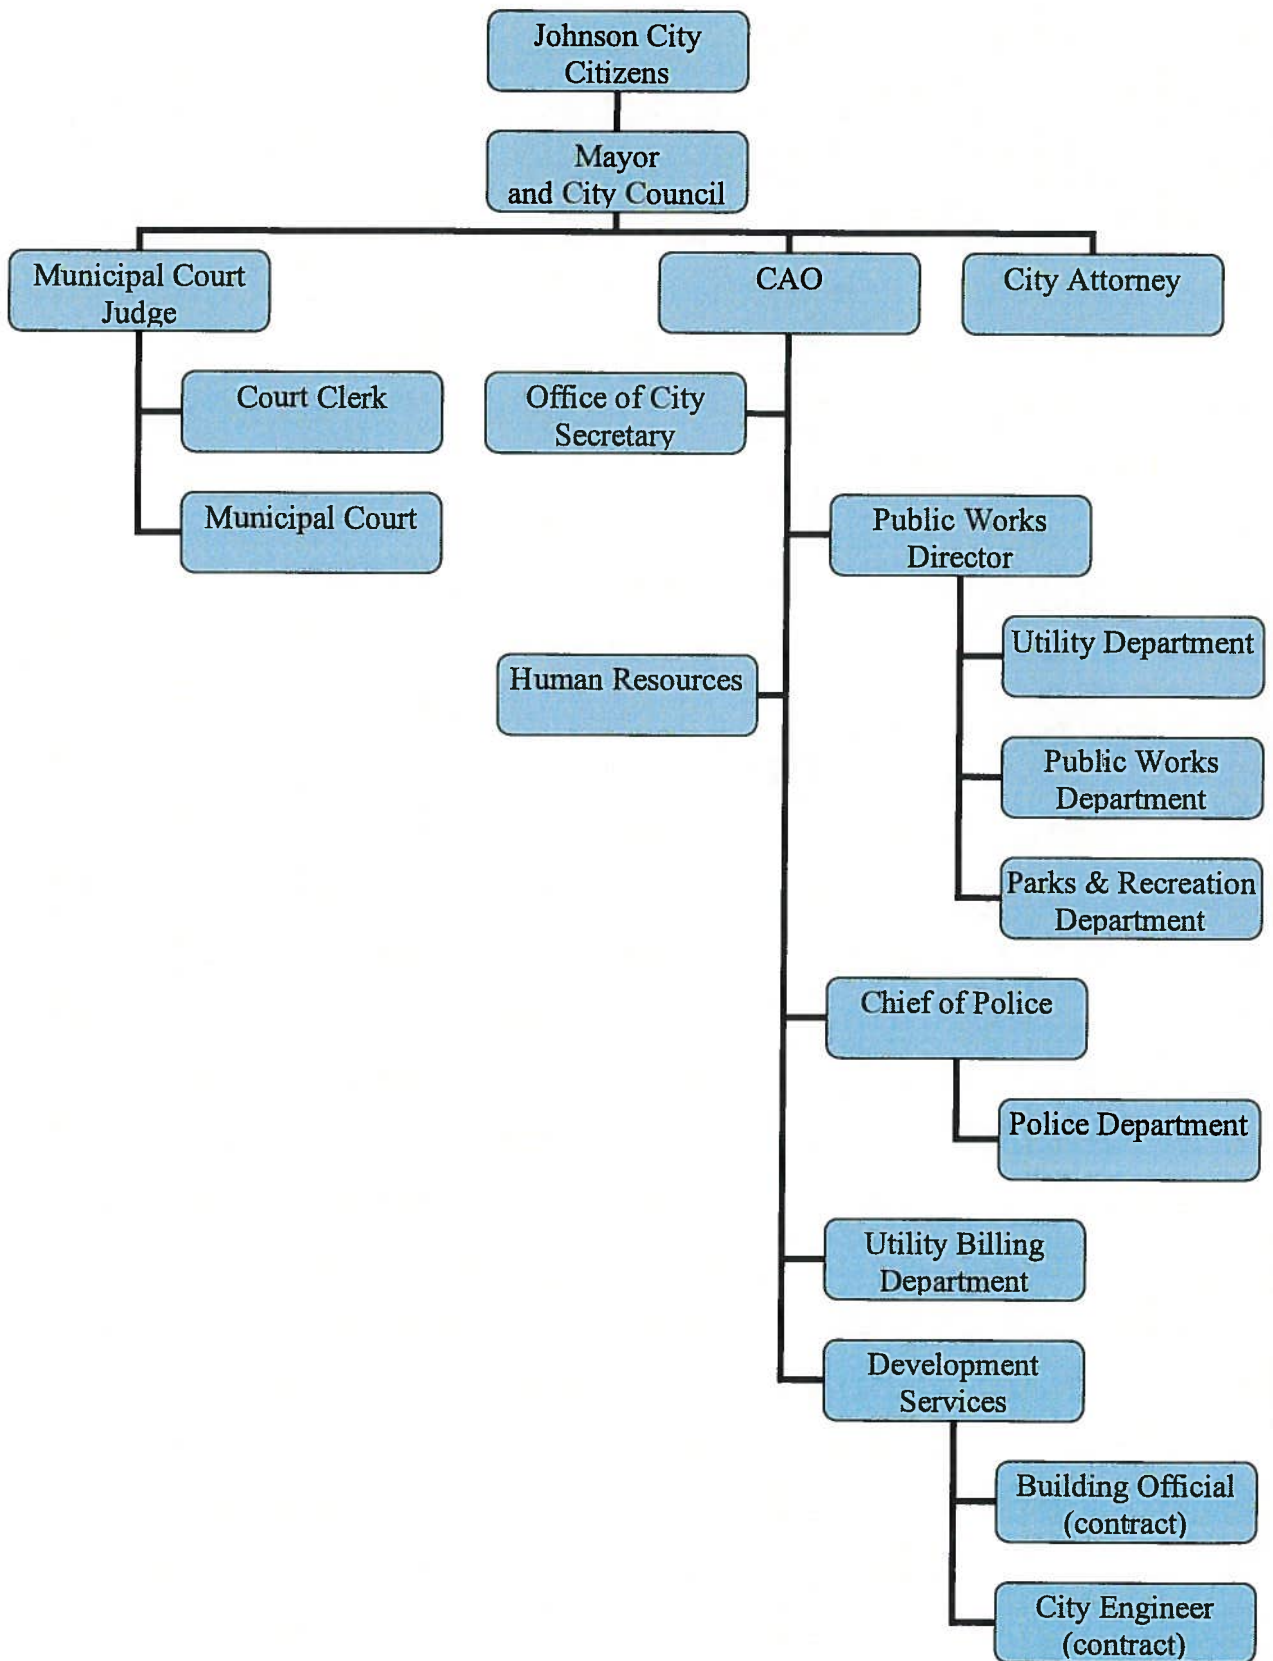

The CAO shall act as the Department Head of the Human Resources Department and the Development Services Department and Utility Billing Department until further notice. A Department Head for each of those departments shall be selected by the City Council upon recommendation by the CAO.

Section 2.4 Supervisor

Supervisors work under the direction of a Department Head and are partially responsible for the day-to-day administration of these Personnel Policies and Procedures. A Supervisor, under the direction of a Department Head, may make departmental rules and regulations that govern the conduct and performance of employees; however, such rules and regulations must be consistent with the Manual. Unless a Department SOP is more restrictive, the Manual shall control over any other policies. Disciplinary action, as outlined in Chapter 18, may be based upon violations of any such rule and/or regulation. A Supervisor shall be selected by a Department head with approval from the CAO.

Section 2.5 Organizational Chart

The personnel in the City shall be organized showing line of authority as depicted in the following chart:

CHAPTER 3 NATURE OF EMPLOYMENT

Section 3.1 Equal Employment Opportunity

The City is an Equal Opportunity Employer and does not discriminate against any applicant or employee based on the person's race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, or genetic information, except when specific age, sex, or physical requirements constitute a bona-fide occupational qualification reasonably necessary for the normal operation of the business or enterprise.

Section 3.2 Americans with Disabilities Act

The City offers equal employment opportunities to qualified individuals with a disability, and it strictly prohibits discrimination against qualified individuals based on disability.

Section 3.3 Immigration Law Compliance

In compliance with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, each new employee, as a condition of employment, is required to complete an employment eligibility verification form.

Section 3.4 At-Will Employment

Employment with the City is voluntarily entered into, and each City employee is free to resign at will at any time, with or without cause. Similarly, the City may terminate the employment relationship at will, with or without notice or cause. The policies contained in this Manual set forth general aspects of employment with the City and are not intended to create a contract, nor are they to be construed as contractual obligations between the City and any of its employees.

CHAPTER 4 TYPES OF EMPLOYMENT

The City hires employees in several different employment types as defined below.

Section 4.1 Regular Full-Time Employees

Regular full-time employees are scheduled to work forty (40) hours per week and eighty (80) hours during each pay period in a budgeted position on a continuous basis and receive benefits as further defined in this document.

Section 4.2 Part-Time Employees

Part-time employees may not work more than nine hundred and ninety-nine (999) hours annually in a budgeted position on a continuous basis. These employees work for a specified hourly rate and are not eligible for employee benefits.

Section 4.3 Temporary Employees

Temporary employees are hired for up to one (1) calendar year or 365 days. These employees work for a specified hourly rate and are not eligible for employee benefits. Specific budgeted positions may not exist for these employees.

Each employee is advised of the length of time to be employed before hiring. Termination automatically occurs on that date unless proper authorization is received before termination.

Section 4.4 Reserve Officers, Volunteers, and Internships

Employees defined under this Section shall be on indefinite original probation throughout their tenure with the City, as defined in Section 7.1A, and will have no appeal rights outlined within Chapter 19. The following employees shall be processed through the Human Resources Department:

A. Reserve Officers

Reserve Officers fall under the direction of the Police Department, and are voluntary employees. Reserve officers are unpaid and are not eligible for employee benefits.

B. Volunteers and Interns

Volunteers may work with any department, and fall under the direction of the Department Head. Volunteers are unpaid and are not eligible for employee benefits.

CHAPTER 5 JOB POSITION DESCRIPTION

Section 5.1 Job Descriptions

Job descriptions are created by the CAO and approved by the City Council. These outline the duties, required skills, knowledge and abilities, education and experience requirements, and essential job functions for each job. Job descriptions are meant to include essential job functions but may not be inclusive of all job duties. Employees are entitled to have a copy of the job description for their current position.

Section 5.2 Job Description Reviews

Job description reviews may occur if the nature and duties of a position have changed significantly over a period of time. The Human Resources Department and/or Department Head periodically review position descriptions to ensure they are accurate and up to date. The CAO shall approve all job description modifications.

CHAPTER 6 HIRING PROCESS

Section 6.1 Procedure and Types of Hiring

Authority. The hiring of most employees falls under the authority of the Department Head or Supervisor except for the hiring of the CAO and the City Secretary and the selection of the Municipal Court Judge and City Attorney which fall under the authority of the City Council.

Process. All municipal departments shall go through the Human Resources Department to recruit applicants for a job opening, whether internal or external. Department Heads must fill out a Job Vacancy Form to recruit existing employees or outside applicants, and follow associated posting procedures, as amended from time to time by the HR Department. Under extenuating circumstances, an employee may be hired outside the hiring process outlined above. The hiring of any position must be processed through the Human Resources Department.

A. In-House Hiring

In-house recruitment means position vacancies are advertised to City employees only. When recruitment is from City employees only, the job vacancy form indicates so and is posted for a minimum of five working days. Interested employees may apply for in-house position vacancies by submitting a letter of interest to the Human Resources Department.

B. In-House Promotion

In-house promotion is when a current employee is moved to a vacant position either in a lateral move of higher rank, responsibility, and/or salary. When promotion occurs, the vacant position does not necessarily have to be posted, but rather, may be filled by an employee qualified for the position. Whether to post the position and the type of posting will be decided by management responsible for hiring for the position. If several employees are qualified for the position, an internal posting process should be followed. Promotions may happen within or outside of an individual's department.

C. Open Recruitment

In addition to making an internal hire, the Department Head may also determine that an outside hire is necessary, and he or she shall indicate on the Job Vacancy Form that the position is for "Open Recruitment." Open recruitment means position vacancies are advertised to City employees and the public. These positions will be posted for a minimum of ten working days. The public may apply for positions by submitting an application and resume, as directed in the job announcement. Interested City employees may also apply by submitting a letter of interest to the Human Resources Department.

Section 6.2 Job Announcements

Announcements of all job openings are distributed to inform interested and qualified applicants of the posting, and should contain the following information as applicable:

1. Job title;
2. Job salary range;
3. Starting job salary range/pay;
4. The type of recruitment (in-house or open recruitment);
5. Essential job functions, including major job duties and requirements;
6. Time, place, and manner of making an application;
7. Application closing date or open until filled; and
8. The statement "An Equal Opportunity Employer" appears on all advertising.

Section 6.3 Applicant Review

Once a budgeted, open position has been properly posted by the Human Resources Department, the Human Resources Department will accept applications through fax, email, mail, or hand-delivered by the applicant in person. Before providing the applicant and associated background materials to Department Heads, the Human Resources Department will review each application to determine whether the application should be rejected, as provided below. Those applications rejected will not be forwarded to the appropriate Department Head for review, nor will the Human Resources Department schedule interviews for any applicant not meeting the minimum requirements.

Section 6.4 Rejection of Applications

Applications may be rejected for the following reason(s):

1. The applicant does not meet the stated qualifications for the position;
2. Submitted after the expiration of posting; or
3. The application form is incomplete.

Section 6.5 Examination

Applicants for all City positions undergo an appropriate selection process. The process may consist of any or all the following elements:

1. A written test of knowledge;
2. Skills or performance examination;
3. An assessment of capabilities needed for the position;
4. An oral interview;
5. Reference checks;
6. Physical fitness test;
7. Medical examination;
8. Drug screening (for certain positions and upon an offer of employment);
9. Background checks; or
10. Any other appropriate selection processes.

These elements are designed to determine, as closely as possible, the applicant's ability to perform the essential job functions and duties of the position, with or without reasonable accommodation. Some of these elements will only be performed after a conditional offer has been made to the successful applicant(s) in accordance with State and/or Federal law.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, applicants may be dismissed from the selection process if the Department Head determines, in his or her sole discretion, that:

1. The applicant's application form is found to have contained false or intentionally misleading statements of material fact;
2. The applicant has a record of previous unsatisfactory employment;
3. The applicant has been convicted of a crime that would preclude the applicant from effectively performing the duties of the position applied for; or
4. Other valid circumstances indicate that the applicant is unfit or unqualified for the position sought, in the sole discretion of the Department Head, provided that the reason for dismissal is completely and totally unrelated to the applicant's age, race, sex, gender, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, marital status, disability, sexual orientation, genetic information, veteran/military status, gender identity/transgender status, pregnancy or any other protected class.

CHAPTER 7 APPOINTMENT AND CHANGES IN EMPLOYEE STATUS

Section 7.1 Probation

A. Original Probation

The purpose of the original probationary period is to provide an opportunity for the Supervisor to train, observe and evaluate the employee's performance. The original probationary period begins with the date of employment (including Part-Time and Full-Time employees) and has a duration of three (3) to six (6) months. Employees on probation have no appeal rights for termination.

The employee's Department Head or Supervisor completes a performance evaluation report at least ten (10) calendar days before the completion of the original probationary period. If it is necessary or advisable to give the employee feedback sooner, this evaluation may be done at any time.

Upon completion of the original probationary performance evaluation, the Supervisor recommends one of the following to the Department Head:

1. That the employee be taken off probation;
2. That the employee's probation be extended for a period not to exceed three additional months;
3. That the employee be demoted; or
4. That the employee be terminated.

Actions "1" through "4" may be taken at any time during the probationary period. If no action is taken by the end of the sixth month of continuous service, the employee is automatically granted regular status.

B. Additional Probationary Periods

Employees no longer on original probation, that have been promoted, demoted, transferred to a different position, or reprimanded for poor performance, may be placed on an additional ninety (90) day probation. Employees are given a performance evaluation at least ten (10) calendar days before the end of their additional probationary period. Before the end of the ninety (90) day period and based on documented performance, the employee's Supervisor may recommend one of the following:

1. That the employee be taken off probation;
2. That the employee be returned to the former position, if applicable; or
3. That the employee be terminated.

These employees retain all rights to the complaints/appeals process outlined in Chapter 19.

Section 7.2 Transfers

A transfer is the assignment or movement of an employee from one position to another position. The employee must possess the minimum qualifications described in the job description for the new position. A transfer may be made for administrative convenience, upon written request of the employee, or for Federal Medical Leave Act (FMLA) considerations.

Section 7.3 Promotions

Promotions occur because of an employee being selected by a Department Head or Supervisor for a position in a higher pay range. If selected by the Supervisor, it must be approved by the Department Head.

Section 7.4 Demotions

The following types of demotions can be either voluntary or involuntary and may occur at the discretion of the Department Head or Supervisor, with Department Head approval:

1. When the employee's position is eliminated due to a change in organization, funding, or a reduction in the workforce.
2. Upon the written request of the employee.
3. When it is documented that an employee is unable to satisfactorily perform the duties and responsibilities of their current position.
4. When the seriousness of an infraction of the Personnel Policies and Procedures is such that disciplinary action must be taken.

CHAPTER 8 EMPLOYEE PAY AND PAY CHANGES

Section 8.1 Employee Pay

Employee salary and salary changes shall be commensurate with the annual municipal fiscal year budget.

A. Appointment Rate

Employees are normally hired at the minimum of the salary range. With written documentation, employees may occasionally be hired above the minimum of the pay range if their skills and knowledge are sufficient to allow them to immediately begin performing at a higher skilled level or if market conditions warrant a higher salary level.

B. Paydays

Employees are paid on a bi-weekly basis. If a payday falls on a holiday, the payday is the previous regular workday.

Hours worked are tracked using time sheets. Each employee is responsible for accurately tracking hours worked, Paid Time Off (PTO) used, and other changes to their work schedule. The employee must submit their time sheet to their Department Head or Supervisor to be approved, signed, and turned into the CAO in time for payroll. A Department Head, Supervisor, or the CAO may correct an inaccurate time sheet if necessary.

C. Direct Deposit

The City requires direct deposit for all employees.

D. Payroll Deductions

The City deducts from each employee's paycheck those amounts required by State and Federal law, required contributions to TMRS, and amounts authorized in writing by the employee.

Section 8.2 Pay Changes

A. Pay Adjustments

Pay increases may be awarded to employees in recognition of their work performance and are not automatically assumed to be granted to employees following annual budget adoption. Employees are evaluated before the commencement of the following fiscal year and may receive a pay increase following October 1st of said fiscal year. A written performance evaluation for each employee must be completed before the commencement of any pay adjustments. Pay adjustments are effective on the first day of the pay period following the final authorization of the CAO.

B. Pay Upon Demotions

When an employee is demoted, either involuntarily or voluntarily, to a lower-paying position, the Department Head determines whether the employee's pay remains the same or is decreased to the appropriate or corresponding pay scale.

C. Pay Upon Promotions

CHAPTER 9 CREDIT CARD POLICY

Section 9.1 Introduction

The City of Johnson City's Procurement Card Program is used to reduce the flow of paperwork and, at the same time, provide better controls on all low-dollar purchases made at the department level. The card will be primarily used in place of petty cash, small regular purchase orders, and all other credit cards. This card policy is not intended to replace, but rather supplement, existing purchasing policies.

Section 9.2 Purpose

The procurement card is a credit tool that is issued by a bank through the State of Texas. This credit tool offers an alternative to the existing purchasing process (small purchase order) and provides an extremely efficient and effective method of purchasing and paying for less expensive items. This procurement card can and may be utilized for larger purchases over $1,000.00 if approved by the CAO.

The procurement card shall enable employees of the City of Johnson City to purchase non-restrictive commodities, by telephone, on the Internet, or in-person direct from vendors. The procurement cards shall be issued in the employee's name, and the "City of Johnson City" name shall be clearly indicated on each card.

All purchases made with the procurement card shall be paid by the bank that the City of Johnson City contracts with for the procurement card service. The bank on contract will then bill each City of Johnson City employee.

Tax Exempt Purchases. Employees are responsible for the appropriate use of the City tax exemption form. If tax exemption is not used for a purchase, then the employee is accountable to the City for tax on that purchase (excluding purchases made for airline tickets, hotels, restaurant meals, and rental cars). The tax exemption form can be found in the Finance Department.

Employees have the right to the reasonable inspection of their official personnel file during normal business hours. It is the responsibility of each employee to promptly notify the City Secretary of any changes in personnel data, such as personal mailing addresses, telephone numbers, names of dependents, individuals to be contacted in the event of an emergency, education accomplishments, and other such items.

Section 10.2 Other Accessibility

A member of the City Council has an inherent right to access an employee's personnel file, excluding medical file, if the records are requested in the individual's official capacity. These files can be reviewed in the Human Resources Department but must not leave that location.

Section 10.3 Personal Information

The City may share employee personal information with employees, contractors, consultants, and other parties who require such information to assist the City with establishing, managing, or terminating its employment relationship with employees, including, but not limited to, parties that provide products or services to the City or on its behalf and parties that collaborate with the City in the provision of products or services to the employee. In some instances, such parties may also provide certain information technology and data processing services to the City so that the City can operate.

CHAPTER 11 HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

Section 11.1 Normal Hours of Work

Work Week. Except as otherwise specified, the normal work week is 40 hours per week, exclusive of meal breaks. The work week begins at 12:01 a.m. Saturday and ends the following 11:59 p.m. Friday. Department Heads or Supervisors are responsible for establishing daily work schedules.

Straight-Time Off. When an employee has worked 40 hours before the end of the work week and can be allowed to take time off, the time off is on a straight-time basis. Example: an employee has worked 40 hours by the end of the day on Thursday and is scheduled to work on Friday. The employee may be given Friday off. The employee is then credited with 40 hours of pay for that work week. Time off must be scheduled in advance and approved by the Department Head or Supervisor.

Compensatory Time and Overtime. All compensatory time and overtime are given to the employee in accordance with the Fair Labor Standards Act which establishes minimum wage, overtime pay, recordkeeping, and youth employment standards affecting employees in the private sector and in federal, state, and local governments. No overtime will be paid to an employee before the maximum hours for their classification have been reached.

Policy Exception: Public Works employees scheduled “on-call” on Saturdays and Sundays are automatically credited with six (6) hours of overtime; hours accrued over six (6) hours are overtime, as well.

Policy Exception: Public Works employees called into work after hours are automatically credited with two (2) hours of overtime; hours accrued over two (2) hours are overtime, as well.

Policy Exception: Police Officers’ normal hours of work is 80 hours biweekly, exclusive of meal breaks. The work period begins at 12:01 a.m. Saturday and ends 14 calendar days later at 11:59 p.m. Friday. When a Police Officer has worked 80 hours before the end of the work period and can be allowed to take time off, the time off is on a straight-time basis.

Section 11.2 Compensatory Time for Non-Exempt Employees

Except for non-exempt employees more specifically addressed by other sections of this Chapter, employees classified as non-exempt under the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA), are entitled to compensatory time or overtime when the employee has worked more than 40 hours (or 80 hours during the work period for Police Officers) during the work week and the workload does not permit the employee to take time off during the work week. The Department Head or Supervisor must authorize all compensatory time and overtime in advance. Availability of funds will be considered when making a decision on whether to award compensatory time or overtime.

An employee accrues compensatory time and overtime at the rate of one and one-half time for the hours actually worked over 40 hours during the work week (or 80 hours during the work period for Police Officers). Vacation days and holidays are not included in the 40-hour work week (or 80-hour work period for Police Officers) calculation. ~~An employee with a compensatory time balance must use the compensatory time within ninety (90) days of having earned it.~~

The maximum carryover of compensatory time for non-exempt employees from one calendar year (Jan 1st – Dec 31st) to the next is 80 hours. Accruals more than this amount are forfeited at the beginning of each calendar year.

Section 11.3 Hours Worked by Exempt Employees

Employees classified as exempt are generally expected to work a 40-hour work week, and any additional hours that may be necessary, to complete normal duties. Time devoted to this end is considered a condition of employment.

Exempt employees are in positions that meet the Administrative, Executive or Professional designations of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

- Compensatory time is allowed on a straight time basis over 40 hours;
- Compensatory time is tracked by the employee; and
- Tracked Compensatory time is verified by the Department Head or Supervisor before use.

No more than forty (40) hours of exempt compensatory time may be earned in a calendar year.

The maximum carryover of compensatory time for exempt employees from one calendar year (Jan 1st – Dec 31st) to the next is 80 hours. Accruals more than this amount are forfeited at the beginning of each calendar year.

Section 11.4 Meal and Other Breaks

Employees who work over four hours each day may take an unpaid meal break. The length of the break is one hour and shall be scheduled with the Department Head or Supervisor. The unpaid meal break hour includes transportation time.

Regular, full-time employees may be granted a 15-minute break during each four hours of work. These breaks are paid time and are taken at the work site unless the Department Head or Supervisor has authorized different arrangements. Unused break time may not be accumulated or used to shorten the workday or extend the meal break.

Section 11.5 Weather

Non-exempt employees who are unable to arrive at work at their regularly scheduled time or must leave before the end of their scheduled workday due to severe weather conditions must notify their Department Head or Supervisor and must take personal leave, accrued compensatory time, accrued holiday leave, or leave without pay for the portion of the workday missed.

Upon direction of the CAO, regular full-time and part-time employees who are sent home or told to remain at home may be given credit for having worked the number of hours in the employee's regularly scheduled workday. This time is recorded as administrative leave and is not considered for overtime compensation.

Section 11.6 Timekeeping Policies and Procedures

The City utilizes a time and attendance system that registers actual time entered by an employee using a time clock or timekeeper. During payroll processing, the data is automatically downloaded and printed for employee confirmations and corrections. Employees are paid according to the hours recorded on their timesheet. Failure to use the time and attendance system, as required, may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Timesheets and associated work records constitute the official method by which work hours are recorded and paid for all City employees. Disputes over actual hours worked, attendance, et cetera will be resolved by referring to the official timesheet records.

Certain situations (e.g., clock malfunction) may arise from time to time that will require data correction. Necessary corrections to the current pay period will be documented in writing or by email by the employee to his/her direct Supervisor. If warranted, Supervisors shall make the appropriate edits on the timesheets. Amendments to prior pay periods must be communicated to the CAO in writing or by email.

The City's timekeeping policies and procedures shall be as follows:

I. DEFINITIONS

- A. Swipe-in or -out. The method by which an employee registers his/her work attendance through an identification (ID) badge on the time clock reader.

C. Employee Responsibilities – Non-exempt employees must swipe in and -out at the beginning and end of each scheduled workday, lunch break, and other times when leaving work for personal reasons to be compensated for the time worked during each pay period. Requests for time off require Supervisor approval and, therefore, must be submitted in advance by completing a Request for Leave Form. Employees are responsible for approving their timecards on the last day of each pay period and ensuring that the time reflected on their timecards is accurate.

D. Supervisor Responsibilities – Supervisors administer the timekeeping policy fairly and uniformly and ensure that all employees comply with the policy. Supervisors or their designees verify the number of hours worked and leave taken during the pay period by each employee. All timecards must be approved by the Supervisor before payroll submission.

E. Leave / Time-Off Requests – Leave requests must be submitted through the Request for Leave Form. The leave request must be approved by the employee's Supervisor before the time being taken by the employee. Unapproved leave requests will not be compensated.

F. Electronic Timecard Approval and Deadlines – At the end of each pay period, employees are required to approve their time worked and leave hours recorded for the pay period. By approving the timecard, the employee is attesting that, to the best of their knowledge, the information submitted is complete and accurate. Employees are responsible for all inaccuracies or omissions. Employees may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination, for submitting inaccurate information.

All-time cards must be approved by the Supervisor no later than 10:00 A.M. on Wednesday before payroll is processed. In the event a Supervisor is out of the office, the Supervisor must designate another individual within his/her department to approve timecards.

Employees with time and attendance problems and/or abuse may be subject to more structured reporting requirements until the problem is corrected. Examples may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- i. Report to Supervisor upon arrival and departure.
- ii. Report time spent on each task or assignment.
- iii. Complete a sign-in/out sheet for each period away from the work area.
- iv. Take disciplinary action when an employee's attendance record falls below acceptable standards.

IV. NON-EXEMPT EMPLOYEE TIME REPORTING

A. Time Recording - Non-exempt employees are expected to record their hours worked accurately and completely. Knowingly falsifying time records for yourself or another person will result in immediate disciplinary action, up to and including termination, for all employees involved. The time clock is installed in the break room at City Hall, and it must be used for employees to record their time.

B. Time Window for Swiping In/Out - Employees should attempt to swipe in and out as close to their designated start and end times as possible.

C. Swiping In Late - Employees swiping in past the grace period are considered late. Absenteeism and tardiness are administered by Supervisors.

D. Swiping In Early – Unless authorized by an employee's Supervisor, employees are discouraged from swiping in before the grace period before their scheduled work time.

E. Swiping Out Late – Unless authorized by an employee's Supervisor, employees are discouraged from swiping out after the grace period at the scheduled work end time.

F. Failure to Properly Swipe-In and Out – It is the responsibility of each employee to notify his/her Supervisor of a missed swipe no later than one (1) day after it occurred. If the employee fails to notify his/her Supervisor by the payroll deadline, he or she may be compensated for the time worked during the next regularly scheduled pay period. Employees who consistently fail to document their time may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

G. Meal and Other Breaks - Break periods shall be given in accordance with departmental guidelines.

H. Off-the-clock work – Any time spent performing work for the City while not clocked in must be reported to the Supervisor and added to the timesheet in the pay period it occurred.

I. Overtime - All overtime, including not taking a meal or other break, must be authorized in advance by a Supervisor. Non-exempt employees who work overtime without authorization must still be paid for the time worked; however, disciplinary action may be taken if the behavior continues without Supervisor approval.

V. DAYLIGHT SAVINGS

An employee working on a shift when daylight savings time goes into effect will be credited with the actual number of hours worked on that shift. An employee working on a shift upon return to standard time is credited with the actual number of hours worked on that shift.

VI. EXEMPT EMPLOYEE TIME RECORDING

Exempt employees are required to complete time off requests on the Request for Leave Form.

VII. TIMESHEET CORRECTIONS

If time is submitted incorrectly during the current pay period, corrections must be communicated in writing or by email to an employee's Supervisor. The Supervisor will make corrections before 10:00 A.M. the Wednesday before payroll is processed.

If time is submitted incorrectly and payroll has been processed, corrections must be communicated in writing or by email to the City Secretary. Corrections will be made in the following pay cycle.

Section 12.2 Leaves

A. Paid Time Off (P.T.O.)

The primary purpose of P.T.O. leave is to allow regular, full-time employees to accrue leave time for personal business that requires an absence from work. Employees cannot take more P.T.O. leave than they have accrued.

Accrual. P.T.O. leave is provided on an annual basis upon start date. The maximum carryover from one calendar year (Jan 1st – Dec 31st) to the next is 40 80 hours. Accruals more than this amount are forfeited at the beginning of each calendar year.

Earned PTO does not include designated holidays or other time off due to bereavement, military, jury duty, et. cetera.

An employee is not allowed to use PTO time in order to accrue more than 40 hours in a work week or, for a Police Officer, 80 hours in a work period.

1. P.T.O. Accrual for Regular, Full-Time Employees:

Years of Service	Annual PTO Hours Allotment
90 days or less	16
91 days up to 1 year anniversary	64

Conversion of Existing Sick and Vacation Leave to PTO. For an employee hired before January 1, 2010, sick and vacation leave accrued by the employee shall be placed into a separate employee account for use by that employee. Maximum carryover rules do not apply to converted existing sick and vacation leave.

2. Requests for P.T.O. Leave

Employees must request scheduled P.T.O. leave a minimum of one (1) week prior to leave. Unless Department S.O.Ps require differently, employees using P.T.O. leave for a sickness or emergency must call their Department Head or Supervisor and report their absence within the first half-hour of work if they have not notified their Department Head or Supervisor in advance. Failure to receive approval in advance of leave may result in leave without pay.

Upon separation, regular, full-time employees are paid for their accrued, unused P.T.O.

B. Holiday Leave

The City observes holidays authorized by City Council within each fiscal years' budget. Holiday leave is payable on the City-approved holiday schedule. Holiday leave consists of floating and regular holiday leave.

1) Floating Holiday

Two (2) floating holidays are awarded at the beginning of each calendar year and must be used by the end of the same calendar year. Regular, full-time employees receive eight (8) hours for each floating holiday.

A floating holiday is not payable to employees upon separation.

2) Regular Holiday

- b) Exempt employees that work designated City holidays shall be entitled to compensatory time. Compensatory time is one hour for each hour worked on the holiday and must be taken before the end of the calendar year.
- c) For employees on non-disciplinary leave that includes a City-approved holiday, the holiday is paid as a regular holiday. For employees on disciplinary leave that includes a City-approved holiday, the holiday is unpaid.

C. Administrative Leave

The CAO may grant up to fifteen (15) working days of administrative leave to relieve an employee from work with pay. Administrative leave may be used when it is in the best interest of the City, when an employee investigation is being conducted, or when employees are directed by the Mayor or CAO not to report to work due to inclement weather.

D. Leave without Pay

Employees may be placed on leave without pay for short periods of time when the employee does not have sufficient leave time to cover their absences.

Employees requesting a leave of absence without pay for a period exceeding five (5) consecutive workdays must submit a written request stating the reason(s) for the request and the anticipated amount of leave time to their Department Head or Supervisor for approval. The Department Head or Supervisor may approve up to fifteen (15) consecutive days of leave without pay. Amounts over fifteen (15) days must be reviewed by the Department Head or Supervisor and approved by the CAO. The CAO may grant a leave of absence without pay for a period not to exceed ninety (90) consecutive calendar days in any twelve (12) month period. No leave is accrued during this period, and the employee is liable to the City for all dependent coverage. It is the employee's responsibility to ensure payment to the City within thirty (30) calendar days of the insurance bill date. The employee is solely responsible for Court-ordered payments and supplemental insurances.

E. Military Leave

Regular employees who have completed their original probation are entitled to the benefits provided under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA). In addition, such employees who are members of the State Military Forces or members of any Reserve Component of the Armed Forces of the United States are entitled to leave of absence from their duties without loss of time, seniority, or benefits on all days during which they are engaged in authorized training or duty ordered by the proper authority not to exceed fifteen (15) days in any one calendar year. Employees will continue to receive payments from the City for those fifteen (15) days. Military leave more than fifteen (15) days will be charged to P.T.O. leave or leave without pay. Regular employees who have completed the original probation who are ordered to extended active duty with the state or federal military forces are entitled to all the re-employment rights and benefits provided by law upon their release from active duty. Requests for approval of military leave must have copies of the relevant military orders attached.

Additionally,

- (1) a person who is an officer or employee of the City and who is a member of the Texas military forces, a reserve component of the armed forces, or a member of a State or Federally-authorized urban search and rescue team is entitled to paid leave of absence for each day the person is called to State active duty by the Governor or another appropriate authority in response to a disaster, not to exceed seven (7) workdays in a fiscal year; and
- (2) during the leave of absence described in (1), the person may not be subjected to loss of time, efficiency rating, P.T.O. or sick leave.

All regular full-time and part-time employees may be eligible for Family/Medical Leave, subject to the following rules established by the Federal Family/Medical Leave Act of 1993, and as later amended by the Department of Labor.

The following is subject to change by the Department of Labor. Please reference the DOL website for further details and updates, <http://www.dol.gov/whd/fmla>.

Family/Medical Leave is an approved leave of absence available to regular full-time and part-time employees who have been employed for at least 12 months and have provided at least 1250 hours of service during the previous 12 months at the time the leave is requested. The maximum amount of Family/Medical Leave is 12 weeks in any 12-month period. An eligible employee may take Family/Medical Leave for any of the following circumstances:

- Birth of the employee's child;
- Placement of a child with the employee for adoption or foster care;
- When the employee is needed to care for the physical or mental needs of the employee's child, spouse, or parent who has a serious health condition;
- When the employee is unable to perform the essential functions of the position because of the employee's serious health condition.

Spouses employed by the City are entitled to a combined maximum total of 12 workweeks of leave (rather than 12 weeks each) for the birth or adoption of a child or placement from foster care of a child. Leave for birth or adoption (including foster care placement) must conclude within 12 months of the birth or placement.

Parents or spouses who both work for the City are each entitled to 12 workweeks of leave to care for a sick child or because of the illness of the other spouse.

An eligible employee is entitled to 12 workweeks of leave during any 12-month period measured from the first day Family/Medical Leave is taken. The next 12-month period begins the first time Family/Medical Leave is taken after completion of any previous 12-month period.

The following words and phrases, as used in the application and interpretation of the Family/Medical Leave Policy, are defined as:

- "Child", "Son" or "Daughter" means a biological, adopted, foster child, stepchild, legal ward, or child of a person standing in loco parentis (i.e., in the place of a parent) who is under 18 years of age or 18 years or older if the child is incapable of self-care because of a mental or physical disability.
- "Serious Health Condition" means an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition involving either inpatient care at a hospital, hospice, residential medical care facility or continuing outpatient treatment by a health care provider for more than three days (i.e., a Doctor of Medicine or osteopathy authorized to practice medicine, surgery, or other person determined by the Secretary of Labor to be capable of providing health care services).

- “Unmarried domestic partners” and “in-laws” do not qualify as spouses or parents for Family/Medical Leave.

An employee must first use and exhaust available and accrued paid leaves under the City’s benefit plans and policies, except for 8 accrued hours of PTO leave, which the employee may elect to save for use after returning from Family Medical Leave. The use of paid leave is included in the maximum 12-week period allowed as Family/Medical Leave. If an employee is entitled to paid leave, the employee must take the paid leave first, i.e., PTO leave, except for 8 hours. Any remaining Family/Medical Leave beyond applicable paid leave as mentioned above is without pay.

The City may require the employee to provide medical certification to support a claim for leave for an employee’s own serious health condition or to care for a seriously ill child, spouse, or parent. For the employee’s medical leave, the medical certification must include a statement that the employee is unable to perform the essential functions of the position. For leave to care for a seriously ill child, spouse, or parent, the medical certification must include an estimate of the amount of time the employee is needed to provide care.

If medically necessary for a serious health condition of the employee or the employee’s child, spouse, or parent, leave may be taken on an intermittent or reduced work schedule subject to the provisions of this policy. If leave is requested on an intermittent or reduced basis for planned medical treatment, the City may require the employee to transfer temporarily to an available alternate or part-time position or to a schedule that better accommodates an intermittent or reduced work schedule.

The employee’s current hourly rate of pay remains the same for hours worked, regardless of the temporary employment transfer to a different position or schedule.

When the need for leave is foreseeable, such as the birth or adoption of a child or planned medical treatment, the employee must provide reasonable prior notice and make efforts to schedule leave so as not to disrupt City operations. In cases of illness, the employee is required to report at least every 30-calendar days on their leave status and intention to return to work.

Employees who are granted an approved leave of absence must continue to pay their portion of the health and/or optional/supplemental benefit(s) premiums and all other deductions. The City continues to pay its portion of employee’s premium(s). Non-payment of premiums that is more than 30 days late results in the cancellation of benefits. The City will give the employee fifteen (15) days’ notice before cancellation of benefits.

If an employee elects not to return to work upon completion of an approved unpaid leave of absence, the City will recover the cost of any payments made to maintain the employee's health and/or optional/supplemental coverage from the employee unless the employee does not return because of circumstances that are beyond the employee's control, including an FMLA qualifying condition.

A request for Family/Medical Leave of Absence Form must be completed and signed by the employee. The form must be submitted to the employee's immediate Supervisor for review and then forwarded to the CAO for approval and processing. If possible, the form should be submitted 30 days in advance of the effective date of the leave.

The use of Family/Medical Leave is not considered negatively or held against the employee as it relates to evaluations, promotional considerations, or any other employment factors. No Supervisor will interfere with, restrain, or deny employees their rights under this policy; nor will an employee be discharged or discriminated against based on the employee's use of the Family/Medical Leave or the filing of a grievance or charge related to this policy and the Family/Medical Leave Act.

G. Limitations on Leaves of Absence

Except for leaves of absence for military duty, no leave of absence, by itself or in combination with other periods of leave, may last longer than six (6) months. Any employee who for any reason or combination of reasons misses a total of six (6) months of work in a twelve (12) month period, or a total of nine (9) months of work in an eighteen (18) month period, will be separated from employment due to unavailability for work, subject to any reasonable accommodation duties the company may have under the ADA or similar law. Any employee so separated will be eligible for rehire and will be able to apply for any vacancies that may exist at any given time, depending upon qualifications and availability of job openings.

H. Jury Duty/Court Appearance Leave

Employees who are required to miss work to serve as a juror or who are subpoenaed to appear as a witness in court receive their normal compensation. It is the responsibility of the employee to provide a copy of the subpoena or court notice to the employee's Department Head or Supervisor.

Jury/court leave may not be used in any instance when an employee is a plaintiff or defendant in a court action unless the employee's involvement arises because of the employee's job duties or responsibilities.

I. Bereavement Leave

In the event of a death in the employee's family, an employee may be granted up to three (3) calendar days of bereavement leave to attend the funeral and handle the personal affairs of the deceased. For bereavement leave, the definition of family includes the employee's spouse (as defined by State law), employee's or their spouse's parents; brother(s); sister(s); grandparent(s); uncle(s); aunt(s); children; brother-in-law; sister-in-law. The Department Head or Supervisor may extend this period by two calendar days if extended travel time is necessary.

J. Election Leave

Employees are encouraged to vote in all elections. Employees should try to vote before or after work, during the lunch break, or by early voting or absentee ballot alternative. If employees cannot vote during these times, a maximum of up to one-hour election leave is allowed upon approval of their Supervisor.

The Department Head or Supervisor may delay the completion of a performance appraisal due to pending disciplinary review.

The work performance of each permanent employee shall be evaluated annually by the Department Head or immediate Supervisor. Department Heads will be evaluated by the CAO only. The CAO shall be evaluated by the Mayor and the review submitted to Council.

All violations of Chapter 17 will be handled by the policies in Chapter 18.

Personal Behavior. As civil servants, City employees are held to a high level of professional behavior. Therefore, it is expected that all City employees show due consideration and respect for the public, their colleagues, and the office they hold.

City employees are prohibited from engaging in any conduct, on or off-duty, that could reflect unfavorably upon the City. City employees are expected to keep their private lives unsullied so as not to reflect poorly on the City; to maintain courageous calm in the face of danger, scorn, or ridicule; to have self-restraint; to be constantly mindful of the welfare of others; to be honest in both thought and deed, in both personal and official life; and to be exemplary in obeying the laws of the land and the regulations of their department. City employees are prohibited from engaging in any physical, intimate, and/or sexual relationship with any subordinate employee (this includes Reserves, Volunteers, and Interns).

Preferential Treatment Avoidance. Employees must avoid any action that might result in or create the impression of using their position for private gain or giving preferential treatment to any person or company while conducting City business. It is the responsibility of all employees to observe rules and regulations adopted for the orderly, proper, efficient, and safe operation of City functions.

Section 17.1 Restricted Activities

Certain activities, by virtue of their relationship to the City service or the unique characteristics of the City, must be regulated or restricted. These activities include, but are not limited to, the following:

A. Outside/Inside Employment

Outside / inside employment includes, but is not limited to, other employment, the ownership or operation of a business, employment as a consultant or advisor, employment with the City in another position, or employment with another local governmental entity. Such employment must not conflict with the performance of assigned City duties, be in competition with the City, or be deemed a conflict of interest by the Department Head or Supervisor.

B. Privileged Information

City employees who are involved with plans, programs, or information of public interest may not use this privileged information for personal gain, or to benefit friends or acquaintances. If an employee has an outside interest that could be affected by any City plan or activity, this situation must be reported to their Department Head or Supervisor and the CAO immediately. An employee in such a position must also fill out a "Conflict of Interest Form." This Form can be requested from the City Secretary's Office. Each employee is charged with the responsibility of ensuring privileged information remains confidential and that only information that should be made available to the public is released. Violation of these provisions regarding the use of privileged information for private gain is cause for disciplinary action and/or criminal charges.

C. Political Activity

Any funds provided from or through the City are not to be contributed to or used for the conduct of political activities or the benefit of any candidate for public office, whether partisan or non-partisan. No employee shall be assigned to work for or on behalf of any partisan activity or candidate.

Section 17.2 Harassment Policy

The City is committed to providing a work environment that is free from harassment or intimidation toward or by any employee, Supervisor, manager, citizen, visitor, or other non-employee work contact.

A. Definition of Harassment

Harassment is defined as unwelcome or unsolicited verbal, non-verbal, physical, or sexual conduct that:

1. Is made a term or condition of employment, such as a Supervisor's decision to hire or fire;
2. Is used as the basis for employment decisions like pay, promotion, or job assignments;
3. Interferes with the employee's work performance; or
4. Creates an intimidating, hostile, unprofessional, or offensive work environment.

Examples of what may be considered harassment, depending on the specific facts and circumstance, include, but are not limited to, the following:

Verbal and Non-Verbal Harassment:

Derogatory, vulgar, or degrading comments, jokes, gestures, or other verbal or non-verbal conduct, regarding a person's race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability or genetic information, or the distribution or posting of similar written or graphic material offensive in nature.

Physical Harassment:

Hitting, pushing, or other aggressive physical conduct or threats to take such action.

Sexual Harassment:

Unwelcome or unsolicited sexual advances, demands for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Behavior that may, depending on the circumstances, be considered sexual harassment includes unwanted touching, holding, grabbing, hugging, or other unwanted physical contacts. In addition, offensive language or jokes, whistles or "cat calls", staring at a person's body, offensive gestures, or motions, or distributing or displaying sexually oriented cartoons, pictures, calendars, or other objects may be considered sexual harassment.

Retaliation:

Demonstrating hostility toward, alienating, or otherwise taking unfriendly action against an employee for complaining about or reporting the behaviors described above.

B. Reporting Process

If an employee believes harassment has occurred or witnessed what is believed to be harassment of or by another employee(s), immediate action should be taken by:

- Identifying the offensive behavior to the harasser and requesting that it stop.
- Discussing the concern as soon as possible with a Department Head or with Human Resources whom the employee feels comfortable talking with about the problem.
- Contacting the CAO to report the complaint/incident when the employee is not comfortable talking directly to the harasser or the employee's Department

Head or Human Resources.

There is no requirement for the form or content of a harassment complaint. The complaint may be verbal or written. It is recommended that as much information as possible be provided regarding the offending incident or conduct, such as: what happened or is continuing to happen, the person(s) causing the harassment, time(s), place(s), and, if available, the names of witnesses, etc.

C. Supervisor Responsibility

Department Heads and Supervisors are responsible for the conduct of all City employees. As part of this responsibility, they must take steps to eliminate any form of harassment and counsel or discipline employees as necessary to correct inappropriate behavior. Supervisors who are aware of or should have known of harassment by employees or non-employees and who do not take immediate action to correct the situation may be subject to disciplinary action. Allegations of harassment are dealt with as confidentiality as possible.

When a Supervisor is notified of alleged harassment, the Supervisor is required to promptly notify their Department Head and the CAO for a determination as to how the investigation is to be made. The complaint is promptly and thoroughly investigated. The investigation may include interviews with individuals directly involved and where necessary, with employees who may have observed the alleged harassment or who may be similarly situated. The complaint, investigative steps, and findings are documented as thoroughly as possible.

All employees filing a complaint regarding harassment are to receive a written response from their Department Head or Supervisor addressing their complaint within ten (10) business days.

D. Disciplinary Action

If the investigation indicates that harassment or retaliation against the complainant(s), witness(es), or person(s) who participate in the investigation occurred, appropriate action up to and including termination is taken.

Employees who file a harassment complaint that is groundless and brought in bad faith, or brought for the purpose of humiliating others, are subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Section 17.3 Appearance and Dress

Professional appearance and attire are required during work hours. Employees are expected to take sufficient hygienic care to maintain a neat and clean appearance appropriate for their specific job and work environment. Employees who are required to wear uniforms and/or safety gear are to wear them appropriately. Employees whose dress and appearance do not meet the standards of sound judgment and are not appropriate for their job and work environment are subject to disciplinary action. A Department Head or Supervisor determines if an employee's appearance and dress is appropriate.

Jeans are allowed but must be uniformly dyed with no holes or frayed edges. Leggings are permitted, but the accompanying top must be at least mid-thigh. Examples of non-acceptable office attire include beach flip flops, shorts, cut-offs, miniskirts, tank tops, spaghetti straps, faded or backless attire, or any revealing or ill-fitting clothing, including tops or clothing that reveal the breasts, the midriff, or navel.

Jewelry, piercings, and tattoos are generally allowed, but should not be excessive, unprofessional in appearance, or distracting. Tattoos and piercings on the face and neck are not acceptable (excluding ear lobe piercings for earrings and cosmetic permanent makeup for eyebrows, eyeliner, lipstick, and lip liner only. Permanent makeup shall be in good taste and blend naturally with the skin tone to enhance a natural appearance). If tattoos and/or piercings on the face, neck, or back are present, in the case of tattoos, they must be covered up, and, in the case of piercings, articles/jewelry associated with such piercings should be removed. Tattoos on other parts of the employee's anatomy may also be required to be concealed if it is determined by the Department Head that the tattoos are distracting from the work or services performed by the employee.

A written summary of the verbal warning/disciplinary action must be submitted to HR to be included in the employee's personnel file.

B. Written Reprimand

A Department Head or Supervisor may initiate a written reprimand in situations where a verbal reprimand has not resulted in improvement or where stronger initial action is warranted. The written reprimand should identify the offense(s), the necessary corrective action(s) to be made by the employee, the period in which the employee must accomplish the corrective action, and that further action may be taken if the problem is not corrected within the stated period. The employee's Supervisor and the employee must sign the written reprimand, and, after review of the Department Head, a signed copy of the written reprimand must be included in the employee's H.R. personnel file.

C. Suspension

When a written reprimand(s) has not corrected a problem, or when a separate severe infraction occurs, the Supervisor may recommend to the Department Head that the employee be suspended with or without pay for a specified period. Documentation regarding the suspension must be authorized by the Department Head.

The length of the suspension and determination of whether pay will be withheld shall be established by the Department Head.

D. Non-Disciplinary Suspension

During an investigation, administrative hearing, or trial of an employee for any civil or criminal act, the Department Head may suspend the employee for the duration of the proceedings if it is determined to be in the best interest of the City. Such suspensions may be with or without pay depending on the circumstances and within policy guidelines.

Reinstatement, resignation, or discharge terminates the non-disciplinary suspension.

E. Reduction In Pay

When previous disciplinary action(s) has not corrected a problem, or when a serious infraction occurs, an employee's pay may be reduced to a lower amount. Documentation regarding the reduction in pay must be signed by the Department Head.

F. Demotion

When previous disciplinary action(s) has not corrected a problem, or when a serious infraction occurs, an employee may be demoted. Documentation regarding the demotion must be signed by the Department Head.

Employees demoted for disciplinary reasons are placed on a 3 to 6-month additional probationary period in the new position.

G. Dismissal

When previous disciplinary action has not corrected a problem or when a serious infraction occurs, the Department Head may terminate any employee under their direction. Employees on original probation may be dismissed with or without cause.

Documentation regarding the termination must be signed by the Department Head. Nothing contained herein shall ever be construed as limiting the City's "at will" employment policy, including its abilities related to layoffs, reductions in force, elimination of municipal departments, positions, or for the benefit of the municipality.

Appeal. An appeal of a disciplinary action shall be conducted as outlined in Chapter 19, Section 19.2.

CHAPTER 19 COMPLAINTS/APPEALS

It is the policy of the City of Johnson City to provide employees with an appeals process for complaints. Chapter 19 shall not apply to employees defined under Section 4.4 (Reserve Officers, Volunteers, and Internships); employees covered by Section 4.4 shall be on indefinite original probation, as defined in Section 7.1A and shall have no appeal rights outlined within Chapter 19.

Section 19.1 Complaints

A complaint is a grievance presented to the Human Resources Department about conditions of work, work relationships, or the interpretation or application of policies, rules, or regulations.

A complaint also includes an employee's appeal of written reprimands, pay increases or decreases, performance appraisals, or disciplinary actions.

It is the responsibility of the employee to immediately submit a copy of the complaint to the Human Resources Department. If a complaint is not submitted to the Human Resources Department, it is not a valid complaint.

Employees serving their original probationary period do not have access to the appeal process for terminations or any other employment or disciplinary action.

Section 19.2 Grievance/Appeals Procedures

Exhaustion of the appeal process is a prerequisite for pursuing court action.

Employees must attempt to first resolve the matter informally with their immediate Supervisor. If this does not resolve the situation and the employee wishes to continue, a written complaint is made, filed with the HR Department, and processed in the following manner:

Step A. The written complaint must be filed with the H.R. Department. The H.R. Department must forward the complaint no later than ten (10) working days to the appropriate Department Head or Supervisor. No later than five (5) working days after the receipt of the employee's written complaint, the Department Head or Supervisor responds to the employee's complaint in writing. At the discretion of the Department Head or Supervisor and within the time frame listed above, the Department Head or Supervisor may meet with the employee to further discuss the employee's complaint.

Appeals of verbal or written reprimands are limited to Step A. Employee complaints about Disciplinary Actions C. – G. of Section 18.2 must be submitted as stated below.

Step B. If the employee wishes further review of the complaint, the employee must submit an appeal in writing, addressed to the CAO but submitted to the H.R. Department no later than seven (7) calendar days of the receipt of the Department Head's or Supervisor's written response. The H.R. Department will then forward the appeal to the CAO.

Step C. The CAO may request a fact-finding study of the complaint. Such fact-finding is to be completed no later than fourteen (14) calendar days upon receipt of the employee's appeal from the H.R. Department unless additional time is required to complete the fact-finding study.

Step D. No later than fourteen (14) calendar days of the receipt of the employee's complaint, the CAO may meet with the employee to discuss the complaint. The decision to sustain the Department Head's or Supervisor's action, modify such action, or reverse the action will be made by the CAO no later than fourteen (14) calendar days of the receipt of the complaint forwarded from the H.R. Department.

Step E. If the employee wishes a further review of the complaint, the employee must submit an appeal in writing, addressed to the Mayor but submitted to the H.R. Department no later than five (5) working days of the receipt of the CAO's written response.

Step F. The Mayor may request a fact-finding study of the complaint. Such fact-finding is to be completed no later than five (5) working days upon receipt of the employee's appeal from the H.R. Department unless additional time is required to complete the fact-finding study.

Step G. No later than fourteen (14) calendar days of the receipt of the employee's complaint or receipt of the results of any fact-finding study, the Mayor may meet with the employee to discuss the complaint. The decision to sustain the CAO's action, modify such action or reverse the action will be made by the Mayor no later than fourteen (14) days of the receipt of the employee's complaint from the H.R. Department. The determination of the Mayor is final.

Step H. If the employee wishes a further review of the complaint, the employee must submit an appeal in writing, addressed to the City Council but submitted to the H.R. Department no later than five (5) working days of the receipt of the Mayor's written response.

Step I. The City Council may request a fact-finding study of the complaint. Such fact-finding is to be completed no later than five (5) working days upon receipt of the employee's appeal from the H.R. Department unless additional time is required to complete the fact-finding study.

Step J. No later than fourteen (14) calendar days of the receipt of the employee's complaint or receipt of the results of any fact-finding study, the City Council may meet with the employee to discuss the complaint. The decision to sustain the Mayor's action, modify such action or reverse the action will be made by the City Council no later than fourteen (14) days of the receipt of the employee's complaint from the H.R. Department. The determination of the City Council is final.

Step K. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, nothing provided for in this Section shall ever be construed as compelling the City to undertake a redundant act or to compel any act inconsistent with the good order, health, and safety of the municipality.

Section 19.3 Stipulations

If the employee does not file the complaint document within the stated time limits, the matter is considered to have been withdrawn.

Only issues submitted in written form and timely filed are addressed during the complaint process.

The employee does not lose any pay while reasonably preparing and presenting the complaint. The employee must obtain prior approval from the Supervisor to spend reasonable amounts of time on these matters. Such approval is not to be unreasonably withheld.

Except as otherwise stipulated, complaint/appeal hearings are informal hearings. These hearings are not bound by any formal rules of evidence. The person responsible for hearing the complaint has the sole authority to allow evidence and witnesses.

Section 19.4 Employee's Right to Representation

Employees have the right, at their sole cost and expense, to be represented during the complaint process so long as the representative does not claim the employee's right to strike.

CHAPTER 20 SEPARATIONS

The relationship between the City and its employees is “employment at will,” irrespective of the classification of the position. “At-Will” means that the employment relationship can be terminated by either employer or employee at any time for any or no reason, in so much as it is not illegal.

Employees terminating employment from the City are required to turn in all keys, material or equipment, or other City property by their last day of employment. Failure to do so may result in legal action.

The termination of non-management employees falls under the authority of the Department Head. The termination of the CAO and City Secretary, with the recommendation from the CAO, positions fall under the authority of the City Council. The termination of any employee must be processed through the Human Resources Department.

Section 20.1 Voluntary Separations

A. Resignations

Employees resigning from City service are requested to submit a resignation in writing and give a minimum of fourteen (14) calendar days’ notice. The employee is eligible to receive pay for any unused PTO, based on providing the City with two weeks’ notice. The 2-week notice period may not include the use of PTO during this time.

Employees who resign and wish to be rehired must make an application and compete in the appropriate recruitment process.

B. Retirements

Employees retiring from the City are eligible for retirement benefits, as provided for by the Texas Municipal Retirement System (TMRS), and health, dental, vision, and life benefits. The City defines a retiree as an employee meeting the Rule of 80, whereby the employee’s age plus years of service equal 80. An employee must be a member of the TMRS plan for five (5) years to vest.

The following benefit plans are provided to qualifying retirees:

- The same medical, dental, and vision plan(s) offered to active employees;
- A retiree continuum of care medical plan adopted for retirees and their dependents;
- Retiree life and optional life;
- A retiree continuum of care plan for early retirees and retirees over 65 years of age not entitled to Medicare and Medicare Supplement Programs for over 65 years of age retirees; and/or
- Medicare supplement plan with prescription benefits.

The City of Johnson City allows retirees to 1) receive medical, dental, and vision plan(s) at the same contribution as charged to active employees; 2) to select a contribution level which is 190% of the active employee contribution; or 3) to offer over age 65 retirees a Medical supplement.

Section 20.2 Involuntary Separations

A. Termination

Nothing contained herein shall ever be construed as limiting the City's "at-will" employment policy, including its abilities related to terminations, layoffs, reductions in force (RIF), the elimination of municipal departments or positions, or for the benefit of the municipality.

B. Reduction In Force ("RIF")

The City, in its discretion, determines whether a reduction in force is necessary due to lack of work, lack of funds, curtailment of operations or programs, or other circumstances deemed necessary by the City Council. The City Council authorizes all reductions in force. If it is determined that a reduction in force is necessary, employees are laid off in the following order.

1. Part-time/Temporary employees;
2. Regular, full-time employees who have not completed their original probationary period;
3. Regular, full-time employees whose performance reviews document poor or inadequate performance;
4. Regular, full-time employees in good standing.

If two or more regular, full-time employees have the same performance and attendance ratings, seniority will be the determining factor.

C. Recall

Recall rights for an employee who was laid off as a result of a RIF apply to the following situations where the positions become available within the one-year recall period and the employee has the ability and qualifications to satisfactorily perform the job.

1. Recall to the employee's former position — such recall occurs in reverse order of RIF, not including employees who were completing their original probationary period or temporary employees.
2. Recall to a vacant full-time position within the City in the same classification.

If an employee is recalled to a position other than previously occupied, the employee has the right to refuse the recall. If an employee accepts the recall, the employee forfeits all other recall rights to any other positions.

Regular full-time employees who are eligible for recall are given 14-calendar days' notice of recall. The recall notice is sent by certified or registered mail. The employee must notify the CAO or Department Head of their intent to return within three days of receipt of such notice of recall. It is the employee's responsibility to provide the City with the most current and correct mailing address.

Tenure or length of service with the City, for purposes of fringe benefit calculation, does not accrue while an employee is on RIF status. However, upon recall to work, tenure or length of service resumes without loss of tenure gained before the RIF. Amounts of earned, but unused, PTO leave are paid out, consistent with current benefit plans, to eligible employees at the time of RIF.

The City does not make contributions to the retirement plan on behalf of eligible employees while on RIF status. The election by employees to leave accrued personal contributions in the plan while on RIF or to withdraw those funds may be made within the terms and provisions of the plan itself.
