Public Safety

On April 4th, Officer Kris Greenhill was at the Stripes Convenience Store when he noticed a vehicle pull into the parking lot. The driver exited and walked up to him to greet him. Officer Greenhill noticed numerous clues of possible intoxication and began to investigate further. Upon completion of Officer Greenhill's investigation, he determined the driver to be under the influence of intoxicants. The driver was transported to the Blanco County Jail where a blood warrant was obtained. The subject's blood was collected and submitted to the DPS Crime Lab for analysis.

On April 8th, Officer Chad Wiggins observed a vehicle parked in the no parking zone on East Main St near Ranch View Dr. Officer Wiggins stopped to check on the vehicle and found it to be running and occupied. As he spoke to the driver, he noticed several signs of possible intoxication. After conducting his DWI investigation Officer Wiggins determined that the driver was under the influence of intoxicants and transported him to the Blanco County Jail. The subject's blood was collected and submitted to the DPS Crime Lab for analysis.
