Public Safety

On December 4th Officer Chad Wiggins responded to the Exxon Kwik Chek gas station for a motor vehicle accident. When he arrived the vehicle had fled the scene and what was left was giant hole in the north side of the building. Officer Wiggins obtained video footage from the stores surveillance camera which showed a vehicle lose control and crash through the wall for the store. Officer Wiggins submitted this evidence to Lt. Scallorn for follow-up. Upon Lt. Scallorn viewing the video evidence he recognized the vehicle that crashed into the store. He showed me the video and I also knew the vehicle owner. Lt. Scallorn contacted this individual who would later admit to the criminal offense. An arrest warrant was obtained, and this individual turned himself in at the Blanco County Jail.

If any of you have any questions or feedback on my monthly reports, please feel free to contact me.
