Rick has over twelve years of municipal and economic development experience. He previously served as the City Administrator for the City of Helotes, where he managed operations for all administrative departments, including human resources, municipal court, dispatch, public works, animal control and code enforcement, development services, finance and accounting, purchasing, community events, and the City Secretary's Office. Rick was also the City's Economic Development Corporation Executive Director where he managed and coordinated programs for economic development in Helotes.

Rick holds a Master of Public Service and Administration degree from the Bush School of Government and Public Service at Texas A&M and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Trinity University.

As CAO, Rick will oversee and manage operations of each of the departments of the City. He will be responsive directly to the City Council. Rick will begin work on October 19th and adds "I look forward to working with the residents, City Council, city staff, and the business community to accomplish great things for the City."

Please join us in welcoming Rick to our community!
