COMMUNITY OUTREACH

What is Community Oriented Policing?

Community Oriented Policing (COP) is a partnership between the police department, citizens, and businesses in the community to solve problems, and proactively address concerns for public safety issues.

Examples of COP events:

Shop with Cops – is held early in December. This is a cooperative effort with the schools, local businesses and volunteers to provide Christmas presents for children in need. Families are invited to eat pizza and shop with a police officer. This builds positive interactions between children and police.

Grow with Kettering Camp – held for four weeks during the summer months. School age children interact with officers in sporting activities. The kids are provided interactive demonstrations and learn about police functions, such as bike patrol, S.W.A.T, canine unit demonstrations, and evidence collection.

Safety Village

RAD

The Kettering Police Department offers RAD, a national program formally titled "Rape, Aggression, Defense" to females from Kettering and the surrounding area. Participants learn awareness, risk reduction and avoidance while progressing to the basics of hands-on training using realistic self-defense tactics and techniques. The Police Department also offers classes to children to Resist Aggression Defensively. r.a.d.KIDS is a personal empowering, awareness and safety education program for children ages 6 to 9 and 10 to 12.

With generous donations and assistance from Meijer, the Kettering Police Foundation, LaRosas and other private donations, KPD was able to use over $5,500 to brighten the Christmas of 47 kids in 22 families. Most importantly, we were able to build a stronger relationship with some amazing families here in Kettering. This special event is a favorite amongst KPD staff and we look forward to it each year.
