

County Probation Violation Warrants

When an officer arrests someone on a county probation violation warrant, and it looks like they will be admitted to a hospital or it will be an extended stay, you can call Mr. Yerkins and, if appropriate under the circumstances, he can provide authorization to:

1. Advise hospital security to call him (Mr. Yerkins) when the prisoner will be released.
2. Or he may have you tell the prisoner to report to his probation officer when he/she is released.

This obviously only applies to county probation violation warrants and I am seeking additional information regarding suspects with County Warrants and will be admitted to the hospital.
