

Bike Miami Valley Advocacy Award

Nominate your favorite bicycling advocate or bike advocacy group! Do you know an individual or a cycling advocacy group in your community who is committed to making every day "Bike to Work Day"? Does this person or group epitomize and actualize the health, environmental, social, and economic benefits of bicycling? Do you know a cycling enthusiast or advocacy organization that is a catalyst for change, leading others and activating decision makers? Then share their story with us by nominating them for the Bike Miami Valley Advocacy Award! Eligible nominees or organizations must be in one of the counties in the Miami Valley region. The winner(s) will be announced at the virtual Miami Valley Cycling Summit on May 7th over the platform Remo.

Rules for Submitting

All entries must include the nominee's contact information and your contact information along with answers to the questions below addressing why they deserve the Bike Miami Valley Advocacy Award.

Submission Deadline: by end of day Friday, April 9, 2021 email to contact@bikemiamivalley.org

Nominee's Info (first/last name; phone; email):

Your Info (first/last name; phone; email):

1. Give us your best elevator pitch for why the person or group you're nominating deserves this prestigious award.
2. Provide details of the campaign, project, or policy that this advocate has lead and what the outcome was that positively influenced cycling in the Miami Valley.
3. Give examples of what tactics this advocate has used to advance better bicycling, whether public speaking, social media, volunteer hours, petitions, trail work, etc.
4. Anything else you'd like to share about this person or organization?