PUBLIC ART IN KETTERING
 Through the CitySites Public Art program, artwork is located in over a dozen parks and facilities throughout Kettering and is accessible to all people. CitySites recognizes artistic excellence, accessibility to the arts, and the positive impact creativity has on our community. Learn more at www.playkettering.org/citysites.

KALEIDOSCOPE: ART AND NATURE ON WHEELS
 Is a mobile education program for Kettering youth. Launched in 2017, Kaleidoscope brings a specially outfitted van to parks and community events, offering free access to inspiring art activities. Taught through the lens of nature, Kaleidoscope strives to deepen participants' understanding of scientific principles.
