Job Description

Join our award-winning Parks, Recreation and Cultural Arts team as a part-time contractual Youth Art Instructor. Share your energy and positive attitude while providing high-quality learning experiences and customer service at Rosewood Arts Center. This position is responsible for instructing art classes [primarily involving conventional 2-D media and clay] with participants ranging in age from 5 – 15 and of all abilities. The Youth Visual Art Instructor in the classroom is responsible for creating a creative, safe and positive atmosphere.

Examples of Duties (Illustrative Only):

- Instructs youth painting, drawing, mixed media, clay and/or special event related programs;
- Provides a positive atmosphere for learning at all times;
- Promotes good public relations with students and families;
- Provides a safe classroom environment for all class participants;
- Provides instruction in a consistent manner;
- Maintains and submits all required paperwork for Rosewood Arts Center classes;
- Regular and predictable on-site attendance required;
- Must be able to work well with staff and the public;

Qualifications:

Candidates must be at least 18 years of age. Art or teaching degree is preferred but not required. An equivalent combination of experience, training or demonstrable skill which provides the required knowledge, skills and abilities will be considered. Applicants must submit a portfolio of 5 digital images demonstrating the applicant's artwork and/or artwork created by students instructed by the applicant.

Compensation:

Pay range is $25 to $40 per student with a fixed minimum number of students per class. Entry rate is contingent upon candidate's related skills, knowledge and abilities. If hired, the position works on an intermittent contractual basis as-needed and arranged in advance between the contractor and Rosewood Arts Center programming staff.
