2023 ADULT SOFTBALL LEAGUE GAME RULES (ALL Leagues)

1. All WSL rules apply to City leagues unless specified in the local rules below.
2. All players not on the field must remain behind the bench restraining lines, except base coaches and the batter on deck. There will be no person(s) allowed in the dugout unless they are on the team roster, this includes spectators.
3. No new innings after 65 minutes. When a game is tied at the end of seven innings or a full inning after 55 minutes, the international tiebreak rule will be used. Each team will start with the one out and the last batter from the previous inning will start on 2nd base. All other rules remain the same.
4. A player assumes a count of one ball and one strike when he/she steps into the batter's box. No courtesy/free foul
5. Only players, managers, coaches and scorekeepers are permitted on player benches. The manager is the only person allowed to discuss a play situation with the umpire.
6. In the event of a tie for league champs and seeding, head-to-head record will decide the tie breaker; if it is still tied,
 - a. the best record against the top four seeds
 - b. run differential
 - c. coin flip
7. Mercy/Run Rule:
 - a. 20 Runs after 3 innings
 - b. 15 Runs after 4 innings
 - c. 10 Runs after 5 innings
8. "Digging" in the batter's box is prohibited. A warning will be given to players scratching in the batter's box. The umpire may call the batter out if the scratching continues.
9. A defensive player may not intentionally block a base unless they are in possession of the ball.
10. There is no restriction on defense — free substitution. Example: A player may play first base for (2) innings, rest an inning, and then play third base an inning. However, a player must bat according to the lineup given to the scorekeeper.
11. Behavior of players and spectators is the responsibility of the team manager. Violence, physical and verbal abuse will not be tolerated.
12. All music shall be turned OFF once games have started. If the music is not turned off, the team will have one out to start the inning. If the music continues, the umpire can forfeit the game.
13. No pitch faking is allowed.

2023 ADULT SOFTBALL LEAGUE CO-ED SPECIFIC RULES

1. A co-ed team may choose to play more females than five but may never drop below the minimum. If a team fails to field the specified players, they must forfeit the game. Co-ed teams must bat an alternating line up of males and females until all males have been used. The continuous batting rule allows for two or more female players to bat consecutively but at no time shall male players be allowed to bat consecutively; this includes the turnover of the batting lineup.
2. If a co-ed team starts a game with no more than 10 players they must finish the game with the same number of players. If a player is injured and leaves the game an out will be called if not substitution is available to fill their position in the batting lineup
3. One male player & one female player on the roster in/or out of the batting lineup may be a courtesy runner for any one player of their gender in an inning. If the runner is in the active batting lineup and is on base as the runner and his/her turn at bat comes up that batting position will be declared an out. A pitcher can get a courtesy runner at any time if they were to get on base.
4. A 12" ball will be used for every batter
5. When a male batter receives a base on balls or intentional walk, he will be awarded first and second base with the next female batter having the option to walk or bat.
6. A 10-foot scoring line (scoring plate) will be used for baserunners to score. Runners are not permitted to touch home plate or go over home plate. Runner will be called out if they touch home plate instead of the scoring plate. The commitment line is 20 feet from home plate and will be enforced. The defense must touch home plate to record an out at home. Tagging the runner is not permitted. Runners MUST avoid contact with the catcher

2023 ADULT SOFTBALL LEAGUE SENIOR SPECIFIC RULES

1. Teams may play with a maximum of eleven (11) defensive players and a minimum of nine (9). If fewer than nine (9) players show up, the game will be a forfeit. A team with 9 or 10 players may borrow players to make 11. The opposing manager will pick the 1 or 2 players from the opposing team needed to make 11 on the other team. Borrowed players may play anywhere in the field and bat in any spot in the order. A forfeited game may be played for fun, but the forfeit stands.
2. League games consist of 7 innings. The half inning will be over when the offensive team has scored 5 runs with the exception of the team that is behind. A team behind can score up to a tie or 8 runs, whichever comes first. There is no limit of how many runs can be scored in the 7th inning by either team.
3. No run rule. No new innings after 75 minutes.
4. Each player can act as a courtesy runner only once per inning. The penalty for attempting to act as a courtesy runner more than once in one inning is an automatic out for that runner. If a courtesy runner is on base when it's his turn to bat, he will be out as a base runner but will take his turn at bat. A courtesy runner cannot be replaced by another courtesy runner. If he is the 3rd out, then he will bat first the next inning unless injured.
5. A runner must touch the "scoring plate" before the defensive player in possession of the ball touches "home plate." The runner will be automatically out if he touches "home plate."
6. A strike mat will be used at home plate. The mat and any part of home plate will be a strike, providing that the pitch is within the 6-12' height zone.
